"ON HORROR'S HEAD HORRORS ACCUMULATE."

THE report of the Commission Inquiry, communicated by the Belgi Legation, into the catalogue of cin perpetrated by the German army is of truth a terrible indictment. Ambulan were fired on and wounded perso killed, while scenes of fire, murder pillage in many places are depict The official story shows pretty cond sively how the policy of "sow terror" was followed by the invade Instances of most revolting outrage, women, and the horrible murder of mand even children are set forth, the trail of hideous barbarity is visible everywhere. Never, surely, has a called civilized nation sinned damnably. In fact the second report sickening, and well may disaster dog enemy. A German cruiser has be sunk in the North Sea, and it is report in Dieppe that General Kluck's are constituting the German right wing surrendered.
