Local War Items.
MORE LETTERS FROM THE FRONT.
The Wire Monday Engagement.
A letter from Private Barraud, of the 19th Regiment, gave the following details of the actions of his regiment.

Private A. Jefferson is Hospital.
Writing on June 30, 1865, from a Military Hospital, near London, Private Jefferson stated that he was still in hospital, but anticipated being discharged soon.

Life at the Front—Letter from Private W. Sanders.

Another Letter from Private Hugh Daines Harper.
In a letter addressed to Private Daines Harper, Private Brown described the difficult conditions that the soldiers faced.

Eggs for the Wounded at Shadeg.
Many friends of the wounded had been asking how they could help. Private Johnson responded:

The National Egg Collection.
Join us—Will you allow us through the National Egg Collection to direct the course of the struggle? It is a most important service.

A Drum Band for the 17th Durham Light Infantry.
A number of Drummers are immediately required.

The Recruiting Problem in Higher Tyneside.

To the Editor of the "Teesdale Mercury.

Flower Day in Barnard Castle.
A very successful flower day was held on June 10th, with many beautiful flowers being exhibited.

Farewell to Mr. W. White.
Mr. W. White, Solos by Mr. Armstrong, and Q. Croft.

Photographs relating to Barnard Castle will be displayed in the Shrewsbury Library.

Upper Dale Notes.

Heartfelt sympathy and patriotism at Wessenden Head.

Wounded Soldiers Remembered.

The Rev. Dom Bemwood to Shrewsbury.
Lord Chelmsford, in the presence of the Vicar and Mrs. Ellington, opened the new building of the charity school.

The Rev. Dom Bemwood to Shrewsbury.
Lord Chelmsford, in the presence of the Vicar and Mrs. Ellington, opened the new building of the charity school.

In the Museum grounds.

A proposed scheme (suggested by the County Council) for the site of the new Hospital.

Mr. W. White, Solos by Mr. Armstrong, and Q. Croft.

Photographs relating to Barnard Castle will be displayed in the Shrewsbury Library.

Upper Dale Notes.

Heartfelt sympathy and patriotism at Wessenden Head.

Wounded Soldiers Remembered.

The Rev. Dom Bemwood to Shrewsbury.
Lord Chelmsford, in the presence of the Vicar and Mrs. Ellington, opened the new building of the charity school.

In the Museum grounds.

A proposed scheme (suggested by the County Council) for the site of the new Hospital.

Mr. W. White, Solos by Mr. Armstrong, and Q. Croft.

Photographs relating to Barnard Castle will be displayed in the Shrewsbury Library.

Upper Dale Notes.

Heartfelt sympathy and patriotism at Wessenden Head.

Wounded Soldiers Remembered.

The Rev. Dom Bemwood to Shrewsbury.
Lord Chelmsford, in the presence of the Vicar and Mrs. Ellington, opened the new building of the charity school.

In the Museum grounds.

A proposed scheme (suggested by the County Council) for the site of the new Hospital.

Mr. W. White, Solos by Mr. Armstrong, and Q. Croft.

Photographs relating to Barnard Castle will be displayed in the Shrewsbury Library.

Upper Dale Notes.

Heartfelt sympathy and patriotism at Wessenden Head.

Wounded Soldiers Remembered.

The Rev. Dom Bemwood to Shrewsbury.
Lord Chelmsford, in the presence of the Vicar and Mrs. Ellington, opened the new building of the charity school.

In the Museum grounds.

A proposed scheme (suggested by the County Council) for the site of the new Hospital.

Mr. W. White, Solos by Mr. Armstrong, and Q. Croft.

Photographs relating to Barnard Castle will be displayed in the Shrewsbury Library.

Upper Dale Notes.

Heartfelt sympathy and patriotism at Wessenden Head.

Wounded Soldiers Remembered.

The Rev. Dom Bemwood to Shrewsbury.
Lord Chelmsford, in the presence of the Vicar and Mrs. Ellington, opened the new building of the charity school.

In the Museum grounds.

A proposed scheme (suggested by the County Council) for the site of the new Hospital.

Mr. W. White, Solos by Mr. Armstrong, and Q. Croft.

Photographs relating to Barnard Castle will be displayed in the Shrewsbury Library.

Upper Dale Notes.

Heartfelt sympathy and patriotism at Wessenden Head.

Wounded Soldiers Remembered.

The Rev. Dom Bemwood to Shrewsbury.
Lord Chelmsford, in the presence of the Vicar and Mrs. Ellington, opened the new building of the charity school.

In the Museum grounds.

A proposed scheme (suggested by the County Council) for the site of the new Hospital.

Mr. W. White, Solos by Mr. Armstrong, and Q. Croft.

Photographs relating to Barnard Castle will be displayed in the Shrewsbury Library.

Upper Dale Notes.