BARNARD CASTLE, MAY 26TH, 1915.

A FRANK ADMISSION.

YESTERDAY, at Carlisle, the cause of the deplorable train disaster at Gretna, whereby a total death-roll of about two hundred is feared, was made clear at the Board of Trade inquiry, held by Lieut.-Colonel Druitt. Signalman Tinsley frankly admitted that when he pulled the signals to allow the troop train to pass, he forgot about the local train standing, close to his signal-box, on the up main line.

The Career of Mr Adam Dugdale, D.L.

President for 22 Years.

Mr Adam Dugdale, of Blackburn, was warmly congratulated, at the annual meeting in Manchester, on having been president of the Manchester Steam Users' Association for 22 years. It was stated that during the association's 40 years of existence there had been no loss of life through the explosion of a boiler guaranteed by the association. The report stated that outside its ranks the association has noted throughout the United Kingdom during the year the occurrence of 58 boiler explosions, killing 24 persons and injuring 62 others.

EGGLESTONE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Modified Show to be Held.

A well-attended meeting of the above was held in Eggleston school-room on Thursday night, to consider the question of holding a show this year. Mr Thomas Stoddart, Romaldkirk, presided, and there were also present Messrs W. Forrest, W. Raine, Romaldkirk; H. Page, Balder Grange; J. Thompson, Stotley; G. V. Tarn, Hayberries; T. W. Beadle, W. Dowson, Mickleton; J. Hind, Lonton; Jas. Stoddart, Marwood; J. Pigws, J. Liddle, T. Kidd, R. Kidd, J. Kidd, R. Wall, C. Wall, R. Thompson, J. Lodge, F. Robinson, M. Morton, J. Lowe, J. Allison, I. Walton, and C. Thompson, secretary.—Owing to the unsettled state of the country and uncertain train service, Mr Page proposed, and Mr Isaac Walton seconded that the show be abandoned this year.—Mr J. Allison moved an amendment, which was seconded by Mr M. Morton, that the show be held with certain modified restrictions.—The amendment was carried by 15 votes.—Various suggestions were discussed as to what form the modification should take, and, finally, on the motion of Mr G. V. Tarn, it was carried that 25 per cent. be deducted from the prize-money, should the receipts not meet the expenditure, as the contingency of no extra train service would cause a large reduction in the gate-receipts.—It was decided to hold the next meeting on June 3rd to draft the schedule.—Mr A. T. C. Tucker, Egglesburn House; Mr Hodgson, Raby Home Farm; and Mr Wm. Furnass, Mount Pleasant; were elected members of the society. Cards of the meeting are to be sent to each member.

LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES.

Lord and Lady Glamis arrived at Streatlam Castle from London on Friday night, and left for Glamis Castle, Forfar, yesterday morning.

—o—

Lady Askwith and Mr Gerahm Stewart, M.P., are visiting Barnard Castle, to speak at the meeting to-morrow afternoon, at the Church Mission Hall, the Bank. Lady Askwith's uncle, the late Sir Roger Palmer, rode in the world-famed charge of the Light Brigade. Sir George Askwith will be speaking at Oxford, so is unable to be present.

—o—

The Kaiser is followed throughout his movements along the front by 20 motor-cars, 3 being fitted up as kitchens and 2 as dressing-rooms.

—o—

Mr Butler, an accountant in the National Provincial Bank at Barnard Castle, has secured a commission in His Majesty's forces, and will shortly join a Yorkshire regiment.

—o—

Captain Dryden-Smith, late adjutant of the 17th Durham Light Infantry, has left Barnard Castle for Shoreham, to join the Royal Flying Corps. He has been with the regiment since its initial formation, and was in this town before the commanding officer.—Lieut.-Colonel G. N. Caulfeild, D.S.O.—arrived.

—o—

Mr Parkin, Shepherds' Lodge, exhibited, on Wednesday, a hen's egg which measured nine inches lengthway, and seven-and-a-half inches round it. The egg scaled half-a-pound.

—o—

Under the direction of Mr John Wiseman, great punctuality was observed at the numerous fixtures in connection with the recent recruiting carnival.

—o—

Mr William Hunter, M.A. (son of Mr John Hunter, Marshall-street, Barnard Castle), private tutor, Oxford, has been appointed temporary Science Master at St. Edward's School, Oxford, a preparatory school for Woolwich, Sandhurst, and the Universities, thereby releasing Captain L. F. Case, B.A., who has been ordered with his regiment to the front.

—o—

Mr Avie, residing at Bede-terrace, an accountant in Barclay's Bank at Barnard Castle, has secured a commission in the King's army, and has entered the transport service.

—o—

On Whit-Sunday, a beautiful floral emblem—a laurel wreath, lovely in its simplicity—adorned the brass tablet erected in St. Mary's Church, Barnard Castle, to the memory of the heroes who fell in South Africa. Red, white and blue, in tulips and forget-me-not, on a rustic laurel ground, formed the kindly remembrancer, while most appropriately "Military Sunday" was chosen for the creation of the souvenir. The happy idea appears to have originated with Mrs T. Borrowdale, who made the wreath.

—o—

In place of the usual reception in connection with the North-Eastern Cyclists' Meet, the Chairman of the Urban Council suggested that the money be devoted to the provision of comforts for the Barnard Castle fortyeight to the fighting line. The proposition has been supported by the members of the Council, and the President and officials of the Meet agreed.

—o—

Glamis Castle, Lord Strathmore's stately Scottish seat, is now, like so many other country homes, put at the disposal of our wounded heroes. In the big billiard-room the convalescent soldiers find pleasant recreation, heedless of the fabled ghost of Glamis.

—o—

Lieutenant Roy H. Helmer has been given a staff appointment, he having been made signalling officer to the 69th Brigade. Mr Helmer attended the Whitsuntide festivities at Barnard Castle.

—o—

The Bowes Museum has not to be occupied by troops, owing, it is understood, to ministerial intervention.

—o—

Lord Barnard, on Monday, said Mr Arthur Henderson, M.P., had gone into every hole and corner of this division in the late recruiting campaign.

—o—

"I hate war, and all the influences that make for war, as I hate the devil and an east wind," declared Mr MacTavish, in the Inner Bailey, on Monday morning.

—o—

The Rev. H. Straker conducted a service in St. Giles' Church, Bowes, on Whit-Sunday, at which 1,153 cups were presented for sick and wounded soldiers.

—o—

A brass band is being formed in connection with the 17th Service Battalion Durham Light Infantry, at Barnard Castle.

—o—

Yesterday morning Mr Pheasey, Member of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons, Barnard Castle, who has obtained a commission in the 16th Battalion Durham Light Infantry, left this town for Edinburgh for firing practice.

—o—

The death is announced, at the age of seventy-six, at Shipston-on-Stour, at the residence of her son (the Rev. Charles A. Charter), of Mrs Charter, widow of the late Rev. John Charter, formerly of Middleton-in-Teesdale.

—o—

There were a good number of visitors in higher Teesdale at Whitsuntide—more, indeed, than were expected, owing to the war. The rivers have been too low for successful fishing, although a great many anglers were plying their gentle craft in the upper reaches of the Tees.

—o—

Mr F. W. Lupson, head assistant at the Shandrop Church of England Schools, and son of Mrs Lupson, Langholm-crescent, Darlington, has been given a commission as second-lieutenant in the 17th Service Battalion Durham Light Infantry.

DEATH OF MISS LAW, START HOUSE, BALDERSDALE.

The death took place on Wednesday morning last, after a very short and painful illness, of Miss Elizabeth Bersh Law, who was the younger daughter of Mr Robert Law. She was very highly respected by all the residents in the dale, being of a very kindly disposition and a thorough type of a thrifty, good dales' family. Her decease will be an extremely great loss for her aged father.

The Funeral.

The interment took place on Saturday afternoon, at Romaldkirk, a very large and representative gathering of dalespeople attending the obsequies. The undertakers were Messrs Raine Brothers, Mickleton, and the hearse was driven by Mr Walker, New Road. Our correspondent understands that deceased is one of a third generation to have been from Start House with the same horse. The mourning coaches were from the King's Head, Barnard Castle. The coffin was of plain oak, with solid brass mountings, and was covered with lovely wreaths from the family, Mr and Mrs H. Dent, three nieces, Mr and Mrs W. W. Dent, Mr Dixon, Mr Anthony Hope, Mr T. Dent, Mr and Mrs Bainbridge, Barnard Castle; etc. The bearers were Messrs Walker, J. H. Walker, W. Kipling, J. Hind, Bigsby, and W. W. Dent. The chief mourners were Mr R. Law (father); Mr and Mrs Harold Dent (brother-in-law and sister); Misses D. and S. (nieces); Mr W. Bainbridge (cousin); Mr and Mrs W. W. Dent, and Mrs William, of Darlington. The general mourners included Lieutenant-Colonel H. C. Watson, Messrs Dent, T. Boardman, J. R. Arrowsmith, Garth, T. Busfield, H. Bainbridge, and Mr and Mrs W. Dent, Barnard Castle; Mrs Barker, Mrs Walker, Mrs Gare, and Mrs Oliver, Darlington; Messrs W. Bickett, W. Dent, J. Tyerman, Clarkson, W. Bayles, W. Hill, Miss A. Walton, and Mr and Mrs G. Hare, Cotherstone; Mrs T. Bayles, W. Bayles, G. Bayles, and Mrs Cooper, Bowes; Mrs Holliday, Staindrop; J. Dent, Hartle, Cassle; Mr and Mrs Clark, Hardley Fold; Mrs Thompson, Green Rigg; Mr R. Dent, Stainmore; Mr and Mrs Pape, Mr Raine, Stainmore; Messrs T. Sowerby, Colliness, H. Collinson, Mrs Smith, and Mr Raine, Lunedale; Mrs Bainbridge, Messrs Shadley, Horne, G. W. Bainbridge, and Mrs Bainbridge, Kelson; Mr and Mrs T. Raine, Mr W. Raine, Holwick; Messrs J. G. Watson, J. J. Walton, J. W. Dent, J. Parkin, and Mrs Mrs Jewitt, Mickleton; Dr. Wray, Mr Stoddart, Miss Raine, and Mrs A. Dent, Romaldkirk; Mrs and Miss Coulthard, Gowland, Miss Gent, Messrs Dixon, R. Forster, J. Watson, W. Parr, T. Brunskill, and Miss Allinson, Hunderthwaite; Mrs Coulthard, The House; Messrs T. Wilkinson, G. Bainbridge, Sowerby, Bayles, senior, Bayles, junior, Lind, J. Pawsites, S. Sowerby, and Mr and Mrs Walker, Mrs Dover, Miss Walker, and Mrs Sayer, New Houses; Mrs Watson, Smithy House; Messrs R. Parn, J. Tunstall, J. Bainbridge, Mrs Bell, Mrs Fawcett, and Mr and Mrs Haugh-ull, Bury; Mr and Mrs Addison, Messrs Metcalfe, Chapman, Teesdale, G. Westmoreland, J. Kipling, W. Bayles, T. Fawcett, S. Addison, T. Addison, J. Iveson, T. Iveson, A. Hope, Miss Fawcett, Miss Kipling, Mrs Addison, Miss Bayles, Mrs Harvey, Mrs Donald, Mrs Hesling, Cotherstone—pulpit cloth and bible; Mrs J. Bayles, Mr S. Brown, Ravensgill; and many others. The Revs. S. G. Bell and J. Brunt were the officiating clergymen.

INTERESTING TEESDALE WEDDING.

On Thursday last an interesting marriage was solemnised at St. Mary's Church, Barnard Castle, by the Rev. H. W. H. Bircham. The contracting parties were George Edward, fourth son of Mr Ralph Thompson, Eggleston, who has recently taken Stotley Grange farm, Middleton-in-Teesdale, which residence was famous, years ago, as a hunting-box of Kit James, and Annie Mary, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs John Wilson, Huller Bush, Marwood. As both the parties are widely known in agricultural circles a large gathering of friends was present to witness the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly attired in ivory musline-de-soie, trimmed with Valenciennes lace and ninon. She also wore a veil of orange blossom and carried a bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. The bridesmaids were Miss Wilson, sister of the bride, and Miss Walton, cousin, who were attired in cream crepe-de-chine dresses, trimmed with Valenciennes lace and ninon. They were champagne silk hats, trimmed with sweet peas, and carried bouquets of carnations. They also wore bangles, the gift of the bridegroom. The Misses Eva and Nellie Wilson, sisters of the bride, acted as flower girls, and were dressed in pale blue crepe-de-chine, with hats to match, and carried patriotic bouquets. The best man was attended by his brother, Mr R. Thompson, as best man, and Mr Will. Wilson as groomsman. A reception was afterwards held at Huller Bush, and the whole of the party were photographed by Mr Metcalfe, after which the happy couple left for Stanhope, where the honeymoon is being spent, carrying with them the good wishes of all the friends who were present.

List of the Presents.
