

LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES.

Lieutenant W. Stobart, nephew of Miss Stobart, of Low Starforth Hall, late of the 10th Durham Light Infantry, and now attached to the Royal Flying Corps, has had a marvellous escape.

Sergeant H. J. W. Scott, son of the Governor of the Boreas Museum, is, we regret to learn, lying in the Royal Infirmary, Leicester, having been wounded by shrapnel in the thigh when in the trenches.

Captain D. D. Horne, of the Northumberland Fusiliers, has been killed in action. The deceased gentleman will be recalled locally as having occupied the old Manor House at Starforth for a short time during the stay of the 19th (Tynesdale Scottish) at Dearbult Camp.

Mr. Edwin Atkinson, of Barnburgh, has received the sad news of her husband, who was in the Royal Engineers in France, has died in hospital from wounds received in action. Much sympathy is felt for the widow and children.

Second-Lieut. Percy Douglas Robinson, of the Northumberland Fusiliers, according to news received at Bishop-Middleham (Durham) Vicarage, has been killed. Aged 28 years, he was married in September, 1913, to Miss Linden Park, daughter of the Vicar of Bishop-Middleham (the Rev. M. B. Parker), and niece of Mrs. Heaton, of Starforth Villa.

At the conclusion of the ordinary business of the Chairman of the Town Council, on Wednesday, the Mayor, Alderman Geo. W. Taylor, J.P., on behalf of the corporation, presented a canteen case of cutlery, spoons, etc., to Mr. George Melvin, the town clerk, who, a short time ago, was married to Miss Whately, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Whately, of Riverdale, Yare-road, Barnard Castle, Mr. Melvin and his wife being wedded many years ago.

The Honorary Secretary of Lady Anne Lambton's Durham County Work Done League acknowledges with thanks the receipt of the following:—Garments, etc., from the staff and scholars of Herford School of England School, per Mr. Woody; and Middleton-in-Teesdale working party, per Miss Dent.

Corporal G. Stout, Barnard Castle, of the Durham Light Infantry, who has unfortunately lost his left arm whilst serving in France, is spending a short furlough with his family.

We are asked to say that the statement made at the last Urban Council Tribunal meeting, in reference to the case of a pharmaceutical chemist's apprentice, that applicant had been partially educated for the Roman Catholic priesthood, is not correct, in strict fact.

At a special meeting of the Urban District Council, Mr. Toynby, from the central association, attending, the Council formed itself into a War Savings Association, with Mr. F. J. Wilson, J.P., chairman pro tem, and Mr. Dawson as first secretary.

Intimation has been received that Sergeant Philip Watson, Bridgwater, Barnard Castle, of the Durham Light Infantry (Territorials), has been seriously wounded.

Miss May Dixon, L.R.A.M., most efficiently played the accompaniments at the Victoria Hall dramatic entertainments.

A few months since Mrs. Alice Tweedie set out to raise £10,000 on behalf of the Young Men's Christian Association war work. She has now received over £11,000, which has enabled the Young Men's Christian Association to allot hats or marabouts both in France and England. Several are already erected in France, but it is inadvisable to give the locations as they are near the firing-line, and will include the Graham, Alverton, and district, South Devon (marque), Southwick, Acorlington and district, Romford and district, and Gainsley and district.

Lieutenant H. E. Morrill, son of the late Mr. R. A. Morrill, of Rokeby Hall, near Barnard Castle, has been promoted captain in the Reserve of Officers. While connected with the 2nd Battalion in Ireland in the early days of the War he was commissioned to the 1st Battalion, Royal Warwickshire Regiment of the Line, and went to St. Quentin, where he saw active service. His brother, who was a subaltern in the "Death or Glory Boys," fell in action, and Captain Morrill had to leave active army work after four years' service owing to ill-health. He subsequently joined the Reserve of Officers, and has been employed on special duty during the present war.

Second-Lieutenant G. B. Wilson, Durham Light Infantry, has been injured in an accident while on active service, and is in a London hospital. Second-Lieutenant Wilson was an all-round athlete, winning the shield at the North Eastern County School at Barnard Castle for cross-country running. He is the eldest son of Mr. George T. Wilson, architect and surveyor, of Blackhill.

Major D. L. Hererton, of the Durham Light Infantry, who was attached to the 3rd Special Reserve Battalion at the beginning of this war, has been given a staff appointment as brigade-major. He has won his spurs during the campaign, after over 17 years' service, and has had a good deal of experience in India.

Captain Arthur Magnus Spence, Royal Engineers, wounded, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Spence, Lastingham Hall. Before the war he was a mining engineer with the Cassell Iron Company. He went through the Gallipoli Campaign, and holds the Military Cross.

DEATH AND FUNERAL OF MR WILLIAM KIPLING, OF CARROWCROFT.

THE OWNER OF A UNIQUE LIBRARY.

The death took place, on Saturday evening, at his residence, Carrowcroft, Romaldkirk, of Mr. William Kipling. The deceased gentleman was the son of the late Mr. William Kipling, and was twice married. His surviving widow being a daughter of Mr. Garrett, late master of the Churoch of England school at Romaldkirk. He leaves also a son and two daughters to mourn his loss. The late Mr. Kipling was educated at Durham School, and, although following no profession, he possessed literary abilities of no common order. He was always keenly and deeply interested in the history, folk-lore and traditions of Teesdale, and was the owner of a library of great value and extent. He took much delight in the compilation of scrap books, and no local literary work of any merit escaped his attention. In a word, his taste and other records are of much interest and of considerable importance. He was a kind-hearted man, well-informed, and in many respects a typical North Yorkshire villager. He was an extensive landowner, and had the deceased gentleman lived until the day of his birth, he would have been 70 years of age. Mr. Kipling took no part in public affairs.

THE FUNERAL.

The interment took place at Romaldkirk cemetery, yesterday noon, amidst every token of the deepest respect, all the blinds in the village being closely drawn. The Rev. S. G. Beal (Rector of Romaldkirk) was the officiating clergyman. The coffin, which was of polished oak, with brass mountings, was borne from the home of the deceased gentleman to the church by the following gentlemen:—Messrs. A. G. Oliver, Isaac Bainbridge, W. Robinson, A. Dickson and A. Thompson, Romaldkirk; Isaac Bayles and James Kipling, Baldersdale; and J. Lawson, Handsworth. The inscription on the breast-plate of the coffin was as follows:—"William Kipling, died July 15th, 1916, aged 55 years." The principal mourners were Mrs. Kipling (widow); Messrs. W. Kipling (son); Messrs. J. Walker, J. P. Holmes, J. B. Hain, W. Foxwell, W. Lawson, W.
