Intelligence has reached Mrs T. Cole, of Smallways, that her husband, Private T. Cole, formerly of High Dalton Hall, of the 9th Yorkshire Regiment, has been killed in action on the western front. An affectionate letter from the Rev. J. T. Williams, the regimental Chaplain, discloses the news, and assures Mrs Cole that her husband was reverently laid to rest by himself, "in a good grave, and one that will be well cared for. May his soul rest in peace, and may God grant you strength to bear the loss."

All the real property offered on Saturday, at Butterknowle, to close a trust, was sold. Two houses at the Slack were purchased by Mr W. Blackett for £156, and a house in Copley-lane was bought by Mr Edward Collinson for £87 10s. Messrs Watson were the solicitors for the vendors.

Grave Pony Trap Accident at Rokeby.

Exciting Scene: Miraculous Escapes. A serious pony trap smash occurred at Rokeby Hall on Saturday afternoon, when Miss Bell-Irving was driving herself to Stanwick Red Cross Hospital. The horse slipped or became unfastened as she started through the lodge gates, and the pony—an excellent show jumper—maddened by the blinkers flapping down its neck, bolted. Miss Bell-Irving steadied it as best she could, and guided the animal through the open gate to Rokeby Grove, hoping it would stop there, and let her get the horse fixed again, but, in turning, the bit fell off entirely. Springing out of the cart, Miss Bell-Irving tried to catch the pony by the reins still round its neck, but it reared and plunged wildly, and, shaking her off, wheeled round and bolted home as hard as it could, with the horse trailing on the ground behind the empty cart. Unable to steady itself sufficiently in its wild career to turn in at the Rokeby gates, it crashed through two high iron fences at the side, scattering the stone work, road as well, and knocking both wheels off the cart, but, in some marvellous way, escaping any real injury itself. The frightened animal reached the stable yard trailing the empty wreck, where some excitement and apprehension were felt for Miss Bell-Irving's safety, but P.C. Porritt, of Greta Bridge, who had pursued the runaway on his bicycle, being first on the scene, explained what had happened.

Local Allotment Holders' Association Meeting.

A meeting of the Barnard Castle and Startforth Allotment Holders' Association was held in the County Court Room on Thursday night, Mr Walker Waine presiding over a fair attendance. J. Wilson, Bainbridge, and T. Stout; and auditors, Messrs Smith and Martin. Mr Waine thanked the meeting for electing him as their first president, and assured them that he would do his best for the welfare of the association, as his heart was in the work. It was agreed to hold a small competition probably the first week in September, and Mr Singer announced that he had already received a donation of 10s. towards forming a nucleus for a prize fund, and Mr Dalgarro and the President each promised a further subscription of half-a-sovereign for the same purpose.

THE GARDEN FETE AT ROKEBY PARK.

The Red Cross Society and French Wounded.

Nett Total Receipts: £65 10s.

The garden fete at Rokeby Park, last Thursday, proved a great success. Notwithstanding the threatening appearance of the sky the rain held off, and the grounds were full of a large assembly of residents and visitors from the neighbourhood. Mr and Mrs Bell-Irving and the children of the Hon. Mrs Matland welcomed the guests, and the sale of work was opened at 3-30 by Mrs Rimington, who remarked how delighted she and the General were to be able to come, and that the cause of the Red Cross and French wounded appealed to everyone. She thanked the hosts, and heartily congratulated them on having fine weather and so large an attendance. Those present included General Rimington, C.B. and staff, Colonel and Mrs Herne and officers of the York and Lancaster Regiment, Lady Glamis, Mrs Herbert Straker, Mrs Guy Graham, Captain R. Stobart, Osmon and Miss Gough, the Rev. H. Graham, Mrs Oline, Mr W. J. Watson, Mrs H. C. Watson, Mr and Mrs Relston, the Rev. A. W. and Mrs Sewart, Rev. F. L. and Mrs Brereton and many others. Tea was served on the lawn, where it was interesting to note that the bed-log-out included rows of young potatoes bordered effectively with scarlet geraniums, and the baskets of ivy contained carrots and violas. In the centre bed beetroot and yellow calceolarias were bappily blended. The large rhododendrons were in full bloom. The band of the York and Lancaster Regiment played selections during the afternoon. The stalls, placed under the porch and in the front hall amidst the Roman statues, were very attractive, and varied from Miss Bell-Irving's one of baskets only, all of which sold in the first half-hour, as those present were touched by the thought that they had been entirely made by our poor blind soldiers, to a beautiful stall of fancy goods Miss Stobart had supplied for Mrs Beryl Will to sell, which included lovely embroidery, also made by our clever wounded in their hospitals. A very popular stall, which realised most of all, was that of Live Stock and Garden Produce, held by Miss Mary Straker and Miss Lovain Orsdook, covered in masses of pretty flowers, fruit and vegetables. It also included a fine sheep, a black lamb, and a black and white calf presented by Mr Bell-Irving and Mr Straker. The sheep, raffled for 25, was won by Miss Annie Watson, of Greta Bridge. Miss Molly Sewart and Miss Burrell had the second highest total with their fascinating and dainty things for tiny children, and to them is due much of the credit of the bazaar as those who wished to get it up. Mr Oliver and Mr Bowler sold the entrance tickets, and Mr Bowler the tickets for tea. Donations were received from Lady Zeland, Mrs Bircham, Mr R. T. Richardson, Mr Relston, Mrs Thompson, the Rev. A. L. Manby, Mr Harris, Mrs Norman Field and Miss Ella Macaulay. The very satisfactory total of 271 2s. 10d. was realised, and, after the expenses had been paid, leaves 264 10s. to be divided amongst the three societies. Two-thirds to be forwarded to the British Red Cross Society Overseas Fund for our Prisoners of War, and one-third to be divided between the Durham and North Riding branches of the French Wounded Emergency Fund. The tennis tournament was run by Major the Hon. C. Clegg Hill, and was won by Captain Hicks and Miss Violet Holmes. The golf stroke, which was controlled by Mr Mallett, A.D.C., was won by Captain R. Stobart and Mrs Guy Graham. Since the above was written Mrs Berry, of Wyoliffe Hall, has kindly sent a donation of £1, which makes the clear profit £265 10s.

Wounded Soldiers at Cothorstone.

The Cothorstone Women's Institute, which is affiliated to the Agricultural Organization Society, and the first to be formed in Yorkshire, is doing good work in the village. The chief object is to help the country during the war. On Thursday last they entertained 44 wounded soldiers, who were accompanied by two nurses, from Etherley Red Cross Hospital. The party arrived in motor buses, and, guided by several local gentlemen, strolled through the village, down the Bagg to the river-side and the old mill. The visitors expressed their delight at the beauty of the scenery. Tea was provided at the Temperance Hall. Miss Watson, "Ye Tea House," was the caterer, and the report was most satisfactory in every detail. The ladies of the committee spared no effort to make the guests enjoy the good things provided. Several of the boys visited the rifle range adjoining the hall, where friendly competition with native amateurs caused much merriment. A capital musical programme was rendered, and during the evening cigarettes and refreshments were handed round. At the close of the musical proceedings Mrs Bourne, on behalf of the Women's Institute, addressed the guests, saying how delighted they had been to see and entertain them, and expressed the hope that they had enjoyed their visit, and wished them good luck in the noble cause in which they were engaged. The sergeant-major suitably responded amid loud cheering, and the company departed about 7-30 p.m. after a pleasant outing.

The Drowning Accident at Cothorstone.

To the Editor of the "Teesdale Mercury." SIR,—Will you please allow me, through the medium of your paper, to thank all the people of Cothorstone for the very real sympathy and kindness which was shown to the campers and friends, on the occasion of the sad drowning fatality which occurred last week? The wreaths which were sent and the manifestations of sympathy were indeed a real source of comfort to those of us who were so unexpectedly called upon to bear an irreparable loss. It may, indeed, be an inspiration to the people of Cothorstone to know that the deceased Lewis White and Joseph Johnson were men of blameless life and character, of singular beauty and power in their influence, and admired and greatly loved by the people of Jarrow. Of them it may be truly said that "they were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided." Their relatives and friends in Jarrow have been deeply touched by all the kindness and sympathy shown.—Yours faithfully, WILLIAM G. PEARSON, 57, James-street, Jarrow-on-Tyne, June 29th, 1917.

Upper Dale Notes.

[BY OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.] Three old inhabitants of Teesdale have passed away during last week, whose ages average over 80 years. Mr Jonathan Partley, Stable Edge, farmer, died on Monday; and Mr Joseph Lowe, Upton Square, and Mr Thomas Kaine on Wednesday. The late Mr Lowe was a familiar figure, he having previous to retirement been foreman roadman in the Middleton district for over thirty years. The deceased Mr Kaine has been connected with the sporting rights on Holwick Moor, being a watcher for thirty-five years.

The members of the Middleton Band of Hope had their annual picnic on Wednesday afternoon in the pasture kindly lent by Mr John Coatsworth, Linton. Rain fell at the time fixed for starting, but passed off about an hour afterwards, when a procession was formed by the children, who marched to the field accompanied by several members of the committee. A most enjoyable time was spent by the youngsters.

There was widespread regret throughout Middleton and district last week when it became known that other two young men had lost their lives on the battlefields in France. Gunner C. Bainbridge, son of Mr and Mrs T. Bainbridge, Hote, Middleton, died from wounds at the 17th Casualty Clearing Station, France, on June 22nd; and Sapper G. C. Watson, second son of Mr and Mrs H. Watson, Newbiggin, died at the Canadian Clearing Station, France, from gun shot wounds. He was 31 years of age, and formerly worked as a joiner on Lord Barnard's estate. Both young men were well known in the district, and much sympathy is felt for the families in their bereavement.

The Lunedale Wesleyans celebrated their Sunday school anniversary last week-end. A public meeting was held on Saturday, when addresses were given by Miss Walton, of Cothorstone, and the Rev. G. Glandfield, circuit minister. Miss Walton preached twice on Sunday to good congregations.

The first camp meeting in connection with Upper Teesdale Primitives was held on Sunday at Bowles, in a field adjoining the chapel. Messrs T. Collinson, J. J. Kipling, and Robert Allison were the speakers. The Rev. C. Pettor, circuit minister, was the leader, and also gave a short address at the evening service, which was followed by a testimonial meeting. Large congregations assembled, and the gatherings were of a high spiritual character.

The death took place on Sunday of Mrs Simpson, wife of Mr L. Simpson, road surveyor, Middleton. Deceased had been in failing health for a number of years. The interment takes place to-morrow (Thursday).

Entertaining Wounded Soldiers at Middleton.

To the Editor of the "Teesdale Mercury." SIR,—The committee appointed to carry out the arrangements for entertaining 150 wounded soldiers at Middleton wish to thank all who contributed to make such a success. The Wesleyan School and the Assembly Hall were lent free of charge for the occasion. Several letters of appreciation have been received from our wounded heroes. All feel amply repaid for the effort made on their behalf by the fact that they spent such a happy day amongst us. The accounts showed a balance in hand of £20 which has been handed over towards the cost of the char-a-bancs.—Yours truly, F. J. SMITH, honorary secretary, Middleton-in-Teesdale, July 2nd, 1917.

Local Bowling Match.

The return match between the Barnard Castle Bowling Club and a team from the York and Lancaster Regiment was played on the Bowes Museum Green on Monday night, when the town team were again victorious, winning by 117 points to 44. It was a beautiful night, and our military friends enjoyed the friendly game. Lieut.-Colonel Herne took part in the match, and evinced considerable interest in the competition. After the conclusion of the first match, Major Craven kindly promised a pair of words to the Bowling Club to be played for in competition. The committee have arranged a two-wood handicap in connection with this generous offer, and the heats will shortly be played.

FOR SERIOUS LIVER, KIDNEY AND RHEUMATIC TROUBLES.

WHY BOXERS NEVER HAVE THEM. TOLD BY JIMMY WILDE.

Some training camp secrets divulged by the all-conquering little Welshman, world's champion at his weight, and winner outright of the Lonsdale Belt.

Since joining the Army gymnastic staff I have often been asked to explain the training methods responsible for my maintaining the continuously perfect state of physical fitness which has enabled me to win five consecutive world's championship contests within a period of thirteen months.

"Liveriness," languor, acidity, indigestion and dyspepsia, catarrh, neuralgia, pains, back-ache, headache, rheumatism, gout, lumbago, etc., etc., all arise simply from the accumulation of impurities in the system. Obviously the one and only way to get rid of the complaints quickly and permanently is to clear the impurities out. To do this, thoroughly cleanse the clogged organs of filtration, thus immediately purifying the blood and preventing the absorption of further poisons. The self-poisoning absorption process is the direct cause of most serious ailments and diseases. Auto-intoxication, the medical men call it, and, after all, such scientific terms as toxins, bacilli, uric or stomach acids, bacteria, etc., are only fancy names for common impurities or poisons.

To make and keep the whole body absolutely fit, the digestion good, the mind clear and alert, eyes bright, and nerves steady as steel, simply drink occasionally before breakfast, a tumbler full of our salted water, prepared by adding a level teaspoonful, or less, of ordinary refined Alka Seltzer. This produces a pleasant-tasting drink, and, being a common, standard compound, can be had at little cost from any good chemist. It exactly reproduces the curative waters of certain natural medicinal springs, and Eugene Curri, the famous referee, when speaking recently of its effects in his own case, said the salted water treatment proved better than a visit to a spa.
