LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES.

Owing to a steadily increasing advertising clientele-the result of a progressive and now far-reaching circulation—and notwithstanding the fact that we have had very deferentially to disappoint local patrons for the moment, we have to explain to our readers that much local news from esteemed correspondents is held over, besides special and exclusive reports of the proceedings of local public bodies. This Journal is one of the oldest newspapers in the North of England.

The death occurred on Friday last, at Rose-

We are sorry to hear that Captain A. J. B. Weare is still very ill, suffering from septicemic trouble contracted on the Somme a year ago. while acting as Brigade-Major. He has been seriously ill in a military (Guy's) hospital in London, having undergone two operations, and now he has been ordered to the Nursing Home at Llandrindod Wells, by a London specialist, to get the bracing air. Mr Weare was well known and highly esteemed at Barnard Castle, and the news of his distressing and painful illness has come as a great shock to his many friends. Mrs Weare is helping to nurse her husband. Captain Weare went out with the 11th Durham Light Infantry.

UPPER DALE NOTES.

[BY OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

Among the local soldiers who have been on leave at their home in Teerdale during last week were Driver T. S. Ireland, son of Mr and Mrs M. Ireland, Ettersgill, who is attached to the Royal Engineers and who was gassed on July 2 st, and has since been in hespital in France; 2nd Corporal T S. Watsco., son of Mr and Mrs H. Watson, Newbiggin, is also having ten days at h me after being in hoipital in France, suffe ing from wounds received in action on August 16th, and Private G. N. France again the (Wednesday) morning, A special meeting of the members of the Middleton Mechanics' Institute was held on Wednesday night, presided over by Mr W. Oddie, to take into counderation the financial position of the institution. Owing to so many members having joined the colours, the income has been so reduced that it has been found necessary to dispense with the caretaker. After a good deal of discussion a vote of confidence was passed in the committee, and the members are to be requested to assist the committee in trying to keep the institute going. It was also suggested that the landlord (Lord Barnard) should be approached to reduce the rent during the war. There was a poor show of cattle and sheep at Middleton September fair, held on Thursday last, and very little business was transacted.

The Newbiggin Wesleyan harvest festival services were held during the week-end, when Miss Lythe Darlington, presched twice on Sunday to good congregations, and also spoke at a public meeting on Saturday night, along with Mr J T. Toward, Harwood, Mr J. Dickinson presiding. Madame Pratt, Darlington, was the special soloist and rendered appr priate pieces at all the services. The chapel was astefully decorated, and there was a fine display of fruit and Mr G. 8 Nixon, Newbiggin, was the special preacher on Sunday, and on Monday night a public meeting was held, addressed by the Rev C Pettler (circuit minister). Mr J. Watson presided, and at the close the gifts of fruit and vegetables were sold.

Middleton Ladies' Red Cross Working Party had a special flort on Saturday night, the object of which was to provide Christmas parcels for local lads serving with the colours. The appeal took the form of a musical evening followed by a sale of fruit, vegetables and half-pound gifts, which had been licited during the week. The event proved a great success, about £13 being realised.

Interment of the Late Mr T. Peacock.

On Tuesday, at the requestered cometery of Bowes, were laid to rest the remains of Mr Thomas Pescock, late of Sconeykeld His parents came from Swaledale, and farmed under Mr Rousfield for five years On Mr Boutfield retiring from Keld they removed thither, where the decessed and his father were engaged in agricultural purmits for fifty-five years. He was noted as a breder of Swaledale sheep and shorthorn cattle. He retired to Bowes three years side, on account of ill-bealth and was succeeded by his nephew. Mr A. Pescock. The deceased geutleman was of a retiring disposition, but noted for his straightforward and purish disposition, but noted for his straightforward and upright character. For seventeen years be acted as secretary for character. For screnteen years be acted as secretary for Bowes Field Reeves, and only relinquished the position last year. He have the respect of the countryside, which fact was testified to by the large attendance +t his funeral. He married Miss Burne, who was sch olmistress at Bowes, and who survives him, but leaves no issue The Rev H. Straker bonducted the service. Miss Sayer presided at the organ, and he hymrs, "Thy way, not mine, O Lord" and "Jesu, lover of my soul, 'were sung. Mr J. Thompson was undertaker

The Late Mrs J. J. Pulleine.

A memorial service was held on Friday, in Gainford Parish Church for Mrs J. J. Pulleine, of the White House, Gainford, widow of the late Bishop of Richmond. The service began at i, p m, the same hour as the fuueral at Stanhope Parish Church, and was conducted by the Rev. H. C. Watson The 90th, Psalm was said, the lesson from the burial office followed, and then the Hev. H. C. Applictions for Sugar Cards.

To the Editor of the " Feredale Mercury." SIE,-I am experiencing much difficulty with the applica-tions for sugar cards, because so many of the forms are not properly filled up. I have received many without any address, and consequently I cannot return them, nor can sugar sards be issued. Others are faulty in not having christian names or occupations filled in; in some the ages of the children are omitted, and some forms are not signed. I fear several applicants have included more persons than are actually members of the household — The task of carrying through the scheme s no light one, but it is rendered much more difficult by the defective forms, and the ultimate result may be that some persons will have to go without sugar If this is the case, they must not blame yours faithfully, J. INGRAM DAWSON, 24th Sept., 19-7. Clerk to the Food Committee. 24th Sept., 19 7.

M H. BARE The Rigg. Lartington, September 21st, 1917.

How to Save Brend I

The new maize meal, or mixture of maize meal and ostmeal, makes delicious fritters and rissoles, when fried in "ATORA" Block Sust. Rice, lentils, peas and beans are equally good and save bread without lowering the nourishmont of meals. These fritters and riesoles can be used as vegetables or otherwise. A ploch of Hagon's Sauce Powder gives a delicious piquant flavour. Ask for "ATORA" Suet in Blocks for frying and Shredded for puddings, etc. of all grocers 11b. b xes 1/5, 11b. 9d.
