RAM SHOW AT MIDDLETON.

HAM SHUW AT MIDDLETOR. The above recently established event which took place at Middleton, on Friday last, in a field kindly lent by Mr M. Richardson, promises to become a popular and useful function for Teesdale. The various classes brought exceptionally large entries, and the quality of the exhibits proves that Teesdale still maintains its great popularity in sheep rearing. Flockmasters gathered from all parts of a wide district, and Middleton is a capital centre for a show of this character. There were 22 aged tups exhibited, and the judges (Messre O. Weller, Baldersdale ; J. Dargue, Kirkby Stephen ; and Geo. Wall. Wendale). had a very difficult task in deciding the awards. Wm. Thompson, Barnley, came first ; Alf Dent, 20d; Those Scott, 3rd ; J. SECOND-LIEUTENANT J. G. HARKER, who has been killed in action, was grandson of the late Mr George Tarn, of Hayberries, his mother being the eldest daughter of the decease auctioneer. Second-Lieutenant Harker wa well-known by many friends in Barnard Castle

THERE was one more waggon this year than last in conveying chiefly fell ponies from Romaldkirk Fair.

THE deputation from this district to the Durham County War Agricultural Committee consisted of Messrs V. Hodgson, G. Atkinson and I. C. Bainbridge, and the additional land to be ploughed out locally was 1,400 acres. While some of the representatives agreed to plough out their allotted proportions, the local deputation protested against the additional acreage of tillage land wanted in the Barnard Castle area.

A son of the niece of the late Mr William Smith, Bank, Barnard Castle (nee Josephine Ryder, of Lowther, near Penrith), was killed in action at Ploegsteert, on April 12th, news having arrived through the British Red Cross. SAPPER J. THOMPSON, Royal Engineers nephew of Mr G. Thompson, Bay, Horse Barnard Castle, has been injured in the chest whilst bridge-building during night operation at the front, and is in a London hospital.

THE Barnard Castle Chess Club was, after an experimental year, formally established on Saturday last, with Mr M. J. Dixon as president. The members meet at the Witham Hall on Thursdays and Saturdays at 7 p.m., or at 6 p.m. by arrangement, and all players or others desiring to know the game should apply to Mr Dockrill, post-office, who has taken over the secretarial duties from Mr S. A. Sweeten. service on the Tecs Valley branch.

SAPPER J. BELL, son of Mrs Bell, Marshallstreet, has been invalided from France, and is in a convalescent home at Croydon.

THE friends in this town of the Rev. Harold P. Young will be interested to know that he has been appointed chaplain to the forces on active service, and expects to go to Franc with his regiment before the end of this week He had final leave of absence for one week which he spent in the North of Scotland

THE Rev. David Barran, of Birstall, entered upon the pastorate of the Congregational Church at Barnard Castle, on Sunday last. He had a very cordial reception.

THE Record Office at York have notifie Mrs Jones, late Thorngate, that her husband, Private James Jones, of the Northumberland Fusiliers, was posted as missing on or shortly fter the 27th of May, 1918.

THE record of rainfall for September at the Bowes Museum Park is interesting. The total fall was 6.57 inches. The greatest fall in one day, 1.64, was on September 16th. Rain fell on 24 out of the 30 days, 6 days only being free from rain.

townships to let the matter remain open any longer.-Mr Dawson, for the defendants, asked for an adjournment. It was through no personal fault of the overseers that the money had not been paid, and as they were all men of substance, the Bench need not hesitate to adjourn the application, which was in effect for warrants to seize the goods of the overseers individually. The Assistant-Overseen had apparently not got in the money, but he bad undertaken to make up the parish books, and give all the help he could. Time was cours the money would be paid, but for certain reasons which he would not go into it was desirable to have an adjournment.—The adjournment was agreed to by the justices, who intimated that the defendants would have to bear the costs.

Middleton Parish Council monthly meeting was held in the Town Hall last Wednesday night, and was presided over by Mr Jos Coliman. Mr C. H. Walton, who has been appointed a member by the council, to fill the vacancy caused by Mr D. Sinclair's resignation signed the declaration of cflice, and took his seat. A committee of three was appointed to formulate a scheme for erecting some suitable public memorial to commemorate the local lads who have fallen in the war. It was also decided that the Council should assist the local Red Cross Committee in procuring Christmas presents for local soldiers serving with the colours. It was also decided to write to the North Eastern Railway Company asking them not to further curtail the train
