The Chairman wished the meeting to convey a most hearty vote of thanks to Captain Rogerson for the way he carried the Unionist colours at the last general election. Other Matters. The question of the agent residing in Barnard Castle came up, after Mr Woodhead said he had no personal feeling in the matter. It was a question of transparency, the division was exceedingly wide, and Woleingham was the centre, there being 20,000 acres.

THE CHURCH AND THE ADOLESCENT. A most brilliant lecture on the above subject was delivered in the Primitive Methodist Church, Barnard Castle, last Thursday evening, by Mr Peter McPhail, M.A., son of the Rev. P. McPhail, Mr McPhail having specialised in psychology, could deal with this all important topic from the view of the expert. BOWES SALE OF WORK AND SOCIAL. A sale of work was held at Bowes on Friday followed by a social, to defray church expenses. The churchwardens and sidesmen wish to tender their thanks to all the ladies who have, at great exertions, given their time to sewing and the preparation of garments, placed the church in a sound financial position. A hope expressed that the ladies will be able to continue their good work, as by past experience they have proved themselves the financial backbone of the church. In future the wardens would be glad to receive greater diligence.
