TO RATEPAYERS OF BARNARD CASTLE. ADIES AND GENTLEMEN,-It has always could not attend the meetings, but now that I am free I offer you my services. For over twenty years I was end of your overseers, also or several years a member of the Urban i District Council, and since the control of our od supply was nederation by the Gov ment, I have given of my beat for your benefit, having been co-opted by the Ford Control Committee to take the subject of your ment supply in hand, and their confidence in me to day is equally as great as when I undertook a solution of the sorious problem at that time existing. I am strongly against placing the administration of the poor-laws in the hands of the Conchy Conneil, for two reasons. 1et. ] am afraid it would menn also creating of many more officials, with big salaries, instaad of the poor-rate being applied to the purpose for which it was originally intended, 2nd. Those living in close sanch with the poor know their needs best, and Bhards of Guardians ought to be constituted of men and women who reprosent the electorate, and not the County Council. I will not solicit any vote personally. If I am worthy give me your vote on pollingday. April 78b.-Yours faithfully, J. G. JOHNSON.

LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES.

ON Saturday morning last, at Buckingham Palace, His Majesty King George held an investiture at which Major T. B. Heslop, of the 6th Durham Light Infantry, was invested with the insignia of a Companion of the Distinguished Service Order. Major Heslop, the first native of Barnard Castle to receive this distinction, gained it in the 1918 Spring German offensive for "while commanding a Battalion holding an outpost line, all the officers except three subalterns and himself were killed or wounded by shell fire. It was entirely due to the personal hold which he had over his men that, with their left flank enveloped, they stood their ground fighting to the last." THE death took place on Sunday, at Low Barns Farm, Winston, of Mr James Tunstall, whose portly and familiar figure and kindly greetings will be missed at Barnard Castle market. He farmed at one time at Gilmonby, and was 63 years of age. YESTERDAY noon no candidates had signified their intention of withdrawing from the poll at Cotherstone (3 seats), and at Startforth (2 seats', in the Startforth Rural District area. THE depth of snow at Scargill, last Wednesday morning, is said to have been about four fect, while at Egglestone snow lay a foot thick. LORD GAINFORD advised the Bowes Museum Frustees, on Thursday, to invest in Canadian ecurities.

YESTERDAY noon one candidate (Miss Smith) had withdrawn her candidature in the election of Guardians for Barnard Castle township.

LORD GAINFORD says that the last time Lord Barnard presided at a meeting of the Bowes Museum Trustees he declared to Lord Gainford that the institutional work of a public nature which he most appreciated comprehended that of the Bowes Museum and the Tees Fishery Board.

The old military town of Barnard Castle was represented in the great historical Victory March of the Guards Division, in London, on Saturday, by Corporal Richard Watson, Newgate Corner, of the Grenadier Guards, poured out their blood like water, and sustained 11.000 casualties.

IN the Barnard Castle Rural District there are contests in six townships, namely, Forest and Frith, Middleton, Egglestone, Woodland, Cockfield and Staindrop, the number of candidates at Cockfield being 14. There are also contested Parish Council elections in the parishes of Cockfield and Staindrop. MR DALGARNO'S plan for flower orna-mentation of the Park has been approved by the Trustees of the Bowes Museum. A NUMBER of closing orders were directed to be issued by the Urban Council, on Monday night, affecting yard tenements in the Bank.

Mr WISEMAN, convinced that he was without legal qualification, asked the Urban Council, on Monday night to appoint an overseer in his place. Mr Hodgson undertook the duties. The Vicar being exempt by virtue of his office, but not disqualised, said he would carry The out the daties of overseer.

THE Chairman of the Teesdale Guardians, having had an interview with the District Auditor, gathered that it was entirely due to the splendid manner in which Mr W. Dont. of Naby, had collected the outstanding rates, that such a happy consummation had been achieved. The Guardians directed that an appreciative letter be sent to Mr Dent, warmly thanking him for his services.

have been extended to the sorrowing husband and son and daughter, in their great loss. The nterment took place at St. Mary's churchyard,

Methodist Chapel, conducted by the Rev. G.

BOWES MUSEUM TRUSTEES' MEETING EXPERT VALUES THE TAPESTRIES

AT £50,000.

The half-yearly general meeting was held on Thursday afternoon, MI J. I. Daws in presiding at the initial stages, and there being present Lord Gainford, Professor Bedson, and Messrs R. T. Richardson, W. J. Watson, J. G. Hall, R. Woodhams, C. J. Smith, M. J. Dixon, E. Lingford and O. S. Scott (curator).

The Late Lord Sarnard. Mr Dawson, from the chair, in the course of an appropriate speech, said Lord Barnard had a very high ideal of his public duties, and was associated with many public bodies, to which be gave the greatest care and personal attention. In fact it was his self-sacrifice which in public amerura helped to shorten which in no little measure helped to shorten his life, and the speaker moved the following resolution, having remarked that one of the despest objects of his beart was the care of the Bowes Museum and the general interest of the trust :-" That the Trustees of the Bowes Museum and Park learned with deep regret of the death of their Chairman, Lord Barnard, and extend to the heir and all members of the tamily their deepest sympathy in their bereavement; and wish to place on record their appreciation of the services of the late of one of the most active and valued members." -Lord Gainford seconded, and remarked that it was with deep sorrow that one felt that one had lost one of their most valuable colleagues, is that he took an extraordinary laterest in that Museum. He was not only a master of details but an individual who looked at the main object for which that great institution had been founded. Lord Barnard's training in the offices of the Charity Commissioners was inestimable, and the knowledge so acquired was aways at their disposal. He regarded that Moseum and Park with wonderful affection.-The Trastees carried the resolution in silence, the whole body rising to their feet.-Lord Gainford: We direct that a copy of the resolution be sent to the present Lord Barnard. Lord Gainford Elected Chairman.

Mr Dawson moved that Lord Gainford be the Chairman for the coming year. He had been the longest connected with the Trust, and was a man of large experience.-Mr Watson recorded, believing Lord Gainford to be in every way qualified to occupy the chair .-- The motion was carried unanimously, and Lord Gainford thanked the Trustees cordially, and though he recognized that he was the sector member on the Trust, yet he had not dene anything like his share of the work connected with the Museum, and therefore could have well understood if his colleagues had thought it better to have a local man-one on the apot, and within reach of the Curstor.

The Museum and South Sea Curios of Dr. Brown to Remain in Australia.

The Curator, is appeared, had eabled Mossrs Slade, Brown and Company intimating the acceptance by the Trustees of the col-lection, and had received a cable, followed by a letter, notifying that in view of the fact that the statutory period had elapsed, the executors could not consent to an extension of time without the approval of the Australian Government. The upshot was that the Government of Australia had token over the collection .- The Chairman : I am not surprised that the Australian Government has taken advantage of a technical point to keep the collection, but I am sorry the curios are not coming to Barnard Castle - Mr Dawson: And Mr Dixon will feel it.- Mr Dixon : I do.

The Archives of the "Old Barney Militia. The Curator read a letter from Lieut.-Colone Leather asking that the archives of the 4th Battailon Durham Light Lufantry might have storage in the Museum. "No one can tell

URBAN COUNCIL : NEW ASSISTANT OYERSEER.

REBREATION GROUND FOR BHILDREN.

The monthly meeting was held on Thursday night. Mr C. Hedley provided, and others present were the Rev H. W. H. Birobam and wesrs Guy, Woodhams, Walker, Hodgeon, E sith, Thompson, Arrowsmith, Wiseman, Dawson (clerk), Welford (medical officer), and Brown (inspector).

Assistant-Overseer and Rate Collector Chosen.

Mr Smith moved, first of all, that the salary of the new collector be £180 a year.-The Vicar seconded, and the motion was carried. Mr Thompson having argued strongly in favour of the payment being by per centage, and he was supported by Mr Woodhams. - The Vicar then moved that they advertise the postion, and ensure a free selection, and, all things being equal, they should give the preference to a returned soldier. They would not give satisfaction to the rate payers generally if they did not give with the second with the second did not advertise the vacancy. With him it was a question of principle, and a man who had been serving his country had a prior claim at the hands of public bodies. Their present official had done his work satisfactorily, Lord Barnard as a Trustee for 25 years, and as Chairman of the Trustees for 16 years prior to his death, the Trustees thus being deprived reminded the meeting that the difficulties were not yet cleared up, and Mr Turnbull had rendered excellent service in the way of putting matters straight already .- Mr Arrowsmith moved and Mr Guy seconded an amend-ment that Mr Turnbuil be appointed at a salary of £180 per annum, and is was carried by six votes to two, the Chairman having intimated that a compromise might be effected by limiting the appointment to twelve months.-The Vicar protected that the procedure was unfair.- Mr Turnbull was then called into the room and informed that be had been elected, and, hesitating for a while, said : Can you make it 2185 ? - The Chairman : There is an effice found as before.-Mr Turnbull : I shall give !! a trial. I thank you, and trust to give satisfaction both to you and the rate-payers.—It was agreed to secure a room for the collector's office in the principal street and on the ground floor.

Suggested Recreation Ground for Children.

A pleasant interinde it was when othereal mildness gave place to bristling harangue in the crowded causel chamber, and the winter's fury and encroaching frosts outside were relegated to the limbs of forgotten things in persuasive patter about trees and swings and gymnssiums and play for bairos. Wordsworth was right when be insisted that one impulse from a vernal wood may beach us more than asges can, and it was time far from being illspent when the John-Street footpath question. in now dress, was discussed.-Mr Richardson attended the meeting and suggested that the Council might become tenants of the field, and utilize it for the dust purpose of a recreation ground for oblighen and as a public footpath from the Barracke-Lane. The field is 2'z acres in extent, and is let at £12 a year. The owner will consider an offer of £10 rental made by the Council, and a straight "fiver" voluntcered in one band, followed promptly by more monetary support in the room for shrubs The Chairman asked for a long lease, and the spirit of town improvement was accordant. The matter was left in the hands of Mr Richardson for further consideration

To the Editor of the "Teesdale Mcroury." Sir,-At the recent meeting of the Urban Council Mr Arrowsmith proposed, and Mr Guy seconded, the appoint-ment of Mr Turnbull, of Cockheld (who has been temporarily engaged in the collection of rates) to the office of perusanent rate collector-the salary being 2:30, and an office allowance. The Vicar proposed, and Mr Wiseman seconded, an amend-ment that the position should be advertised to give all an opportunity of applying for it, especially returned sokier-For this reasonable and wise smeadment only the proposer and seconder voted, and Mr Turnbull was elected. Now, Sir. I strongly protest against such action, and I am sure that the ratepayers generally will agree with mc. All public offices should be appointed to the vacancy. At the present time we have very many roturning to us who have been lighting our battles and risking their lives for us. Some have come back with impaired health and loss of limb, and to prevent these heroes from competing for the vacant position is upjust and ungratefal.
