THE TRESDALE MERCURY-WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1919.

The Military Medal for bravery in the field was recently awarded to Private J. A. Newton of Gainford, late of the East Yorkshire Regi-COACH AND MOTOR TRIMMER, ment and now of the Northumberland Fusiliers. The medal was formally presented to Private Newton by Mr R. H. Edleston, chairman of the Parish Council, on Friday afternoon. Mr T. -----H Hall, lately an officer in the Royal Garrison Artillery, gave an address describing how the was earned in March, 1918, on the CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES Flemish front. It appears that Private Newton, BELONG to the Members, who find the Capital, supply the trade, and share the results. Those in this district are separated from his comrades, met with three of the enemy, and took them all prisoners. Barnard Castle and District Chess Club associated with the Co-operative Whole-session commences to-morrow night, meeting at seven o'clock. Mr J Ingram Dawson made the arrange ments for the dispatch of the mails on Monday Mr J. W B. Heslop running his car to Darlington in the evening, and bringing back not only the Barnard Castle mails but those for the villages en route. Mr Chas. Smith offered his car for Tuesday, and went with the letters, taking up the bags from the villages, and brought back the mails later. Arrangements have been made for to-day (Wednesday), but not further. The Urban Council had a meeting on Tuesday morning to consider the matter, and adjourned until it was known what transport the Food Committee had available. The post office authorities will allow no part of the cost of conveyance.

BIBLE SOCIETY AUXILIARY.

The annual meeting, which was largely attended, was held on Monday night, under the presidency of Mr J. R. Arrowsmith. The Rev. G. Hanson, the deputation, delivered a lecture on South America, which was illustrated by limelight pictures. Phenomenal watersheds were explained, and representations of rivers navigable by ocean-going steamers were shown in a land wide and wonderful. The address was most instructive and interesting. Colporteurs did not expound the scriptures, but read the message from holy writ in selling the books .- Mr Wood proposed a vote of thanks to the collectors, seconded by Mr J. G. Burn, Miss Eglinton's pupils being included. The amount collected this year was in advance of last year's sum.

"SONG OF THANKSCIVING." The harvest thanksgiving services were held last Sunday and Monday, Sept. 28th and 29th, and an exceptionally high level of efficiency was maintained throughout, both in preaching and singing. The preacher was Mr P. McPhail, M.A., who has just left the Penrith Grammar School and is about to depart for Cambridge, and the sermons both morning and evening were singularly appropriate, and full of beautiful and suggestive thought. In the afternoon an interesting musical programme was rendered by the choir, under the conductorship of Mr W. Coates, Mr J. Colling acting as organist. On Monday evening Maunder's sacred cantata, entitled, "Soug of Thanksgiving," was rendered by St. Mary's Church Choir with splendid effect. Mr F. Raper, F.R.C.O., acting as organist and conductor. The appreciation of the audience was suitably voiced by the chairman. The presence of a Church of England Choir in a Primitive Methodist Church is a happy inspiration of the times, and we trust this catholic spirit will be nurtured. The usual sale of the fruit followed, Mr J. Parkinson kindly acting as auctioneer. The Rev. P. McPhail presided. The proceeds were consider

NOTES FROM THE HIGHER DALES.

[BY OUR CONRESPONDENT] The marriage took place at the Parish Church, Middleton, on Wednesday, of Miss

May Stobbart, only daughter of Mr and Mrs J. J. Stobbart, Market-place, Middleton, and Mr Lancelot W. Lowes, youngest son of the Mr and Mrs Jos. Lowes, Lonton. The Rev. E. Hodges was the officiating clergyman. The bride, who was given away by her father, was neatly attired in a pretty silk dress, with ivory \leq orgette hat. The bridesmaids were Miss J unie Temple and Miss A. Lowes, and the best man was Mr W. Lowes (brother of the bridegroom), and Mr F. Parkin, groomsman. The service was fully choral Mr F. W. Raper, Barnard Castle, was the organist. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The presents were numerous and costly. The Vicar of Egglestone, in his excellent "Parish Magazine," says, in regard to local place names :- Foggerthwaite-Folca's thwaite. Folca is a Scandinaviau personal name, and thwaite signifies a clearing Thwaites were sloping pastures cleared of wood, between hill and marsh, used for grazing cattle and sheep. Stob Green-Stob, a post Here is the saw-mill where larch, etc., are made into posts. Shipley, old English for scap, a sheep, and ley, a meadow, hence the sheep's meadow. Haughs is a Scotch form of haw, a low lying meadow on the brink of a stream.

Mr Geo. Longstaff presided over a special neeting of the members of the Mechanics' Institute, on Wednesday night, to take into consideration a suggestion from the committee to raise the monthly contributions from 6d. to 9d., in order to obtain funds to pay a caretaker. The suggestion was accepted by the members. The charge for billiards is to be advanced 50 per cent., and a caretaker appointed, preference to be given to a discharged soldier.

The visiting season in Teesdale has been one of unparalleled activity, the "lions " of the dale proving attractive to thousands of tourists and excursionists. The motor traffic on the High Force road has been very heavy and Cauldron Snout and the romantic Fairy Dell, the ingenius Winch Bridge and the purple moors have been thoroughly enjoyed by teeming holiday-makers more or less pentup during the great war years. The Jack Scar at Middleton is now a recognised beauty spot, and wood and glen, torrent and copse, hill and dale refresh the vision of town and city dwellers, while the ozone is nerve bracing and exhilarating to all suffering from the effects of carking care or brain-fag.

Mr Ralph Kellett, Butterknowle, had the misfortune to receive a compound fracture of the leg whilst returning from High Force Show, on Saturday. It appears he was riding, and, in passing another horse, the anima struck out and caught him on the leg. He was attended by Dr. Beadle, Middleton, and sent home by motor.

Another accident also occurred on Saturday to a young man cycling from Annfield Plain to Brough Hill Fair. It appears he was thrown from his machine on to the road near Middle end Farm, and had his thumb dislocated. Harvest festival services were held during the week end in connection with the Wesleyar Church, Middleton. Mr W. Emerson, Barnard

Castle, was the special preacher on Sunday morning and evening, and also presided over a musical service in the afternoon, when baskets of fruit were presented by the children and received by Mrs Parker and Miss Clegg On Monday night a concert was held, after which the gifts of fruit and vegetables were

Scene at Blackberry Gathering. A young woman. named M. Gregory, (23), who resides at West Crane Row, Woodland, Butterknowle, was charged on a summons by Mrs E iz beth Fichark (62), of the same place, with assault. Mr Hicks (Dawson and Hicks) presecuted, and Mr J. F. Latimer defended. The story of the complainant was that she was gathering brambles on the 11th September on land which was the property of her son when the defendant arrived, and forced her through the hedge, tugged a stick out of her hand, and soundly beat her with it, and dragged her by her hair. Complainanv's son Isaac spoke of her exbausted state when she reached home, laid herself on a couch, and for twenty minutes was ont able to speck, her flagers being cut. John William Birbank, another son, proved that the field in which his mother son, proved that the field in which his mother was brambling was his property. Miss Gregory never said she was trespassing, and Mrs Firbank used no filthy language.-Mary A. Gregory said complaining was in the sir field a lithle way on complaining was in their field a little way on the railway, and witness said to her: "Mrs Firback, will you come out? You know you are troepasting." Thereupon complainant struck her on the head, and witness got hold of the stick. It was not true that witness got the slick, and struck witness with it.—The Chairman: The Beech are quite manimum that the complainant was on her own land. that the compleicant was on her own land, gathering her own brambles, when Mary Gregory assaulted her. She will have to pay the costs, and be bound over in 25 for six months.

George Watson was charged with allowing a mule to stray on the highway on the 16th September; John Harrop was summoned for a similar offence in respect of four horses, on the same date; Watson and Harrop were further charged with camping on the highway at the same time. - P.C. Sunter proved the caser, the effences being detected at one "clock in the morning, on the moor road between Kinclovie and Dent Gate. Harrop claimed the four horses and Watson the mnle. Harrop was fined 21 for four horses; Watson 5s. for the mule; and each defendant was further fixed 10s. for camping. None of the men appeared, service being proved by declaratior.

Milk Cases,

Proceedings were instituted by Inspector Hallimond, of Bishop Auckland, under the Bood and Drugs Act, scalast Fred Tarn, of Ma'ton House Farm, Staindrop, for having s.ld milk, on 11th August, which was 23 per cent, deficient in fat as certified by Mr Stock, analyst.-Mr T. Jennings prosecuted, and a certificate was produced showing that the inspector had had the same cows milked in his presence two days later, and the sample when analysed showed slightly above the standard in quality.-- Mr Robinson Leonard, Staindrop, sain he sold s quantity of milk, as agent for d-fendarf, just as he received it.-- A fine of 25 was imposed - William Stirk, of Victoria B use, Cockfield, was similarly charged, the finance being committed, as alleged, on the 13th August. The deficiency in this case was 11.67 per cent. - Defendant said he had just recently purchased a cow for his own use, and, when he could spare it, he let his neighbours have a pint. He said he knew the Inspector. adding that he was not bad to recognize .- He was fined 10, and costs, including advocate's and analyst's fees.-Stirk declared, on hearing the decision, that the cow would be sold Highway Act.

James Jackson, miner, of Eldon, was charged with driving a horse and tub trap at Gainford, on 6th September, in a furlous manner, to the danger of the public.-PC. Lane proved the case, and said that persons who witnessed the escapade thought it was a On Friday last Messrs Geo. ECONOMY THE DESIDERATUM.

NATIONAL finance, to the ordinary mortal, is not unlike a peep into a bottomless well, though the rudimentary principles of economic law may be fairly within the grasp of most folk. And it is undeniable that a feeling of insecurity has for long taken possession of thinking men, and the conviction is daily being hardened that we are still moving in a disastrous direction. Honest souls are yearning for a reversion to the old Whig traditions of frugality with the nation's purse. The situation is becoming very serious, and Lord Rothermere reminds us that there is one revolt we have not witnessed for a long time in our history; and that is the revolt of the taxpayer. Taxes can tax themselves out of existence.

LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES.
