The Teesdale Mercury. BARNARD CASTLE, OCTOBER 29th, 1919. CRUSADE OF PEACE.

PEACEMAKERS are exalted in the beatitudes, and Wolsey charges Cromwell still in his right hand to carry gentle peace. Society is deformed by war. Government, which restrains the citizen at home, arms him with fire and sword against other communities.

LOCAL AND GENERAL. The cases to be heard at the Police Court to-day include offences against motor-car regulations, cycle lights, game trespass, stealing coal, leaving horse and cart on the highway, damage to grass and assault.

FUNERAL OF MR. T. DENT. There was a feeling of sincere regret on Thursday afternoon when all that was mortal of the late Mr. Thomas Dent was sorrowfully laid to rest in the Church Cemetery at Barnard Castle.

OVERHANGING TREES. To the Editor of the 'Teesdale Mercury.' Sir,—I am directed by the Minister of Transport to inform you that numerous complaints are being received by the Ministry from omnibus and char-a-banc proprietors calling attention to the serious danger to passengers using these vehicles, due to the overhanging branches of trees, which are not at a sufficient height to give clearance to passengers and conductors.

EVERY WOMAN. Should send two stamps for our 32-page Illustrated Book containing valuable information how all irregularities and suppressions may be safely avoided or removed by simple means. Recommended by eminent Physicians as the only safe, sure, and certain remedy. Never fails. Thousands of cures. Established 1862.

THE MARWOOD SHOOTING PARTY. Leland, in his Itinerary of about the time of Henry VIII., says there are two parks belonging to the castle, and notes that there is but a hill between the chases of Taunley and Marwood.

REMARKABLY QUICK LAND SALE IN TEESDALE. Small capitalists readily availed themselves of the opportunity afforded by the farm and allotment sale at Mickleton, on Saturday.

THE TRADES' BILL. The Temperance Council of the Christian Churches challenge the proposal to abolish Licensing Justices, who for generations, they say, have exercised a more or less restraining influence over "Trade" aggressions, and the consequent destruction of the present limited popular control over the licensing construction.

DISCHARGED SOLDIERS AND SAILORS. A second very successful evening's entertainment, promoted by the local branch of the National Association of Discharged Soldiers and Sailors, was held in the Drill Hall, Barnard Castle, on Thursday.
