LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES

On Easter Sunday, at 7, Grosvenor Crescent Loudon, the birth of a son is announced to Mrs Maurice Ornrod, better known locally as Miss Marda Bell-Irving. Mother and son are doing Gardening operations are in full swing in his neighbourhood, large areas having been planted with potatoes.

Mr William Hodgson, for many years ainstaking member, has been unani lected chairman of the Barnard Castle Urba District Council.

The highly successful services in connection with the dedication of the Wesleyan Memoria organ were brought to a conclusion on Friday night by a recital on the new instrument by Mr Felix Corbett, the borough organist of Middlesbrough. Mrs Eustace Taylor, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, sang solos in excellent style, and an enjoyable evening was spent. Mr Corbett is a fine player.

The B.W.T.A. Band of Hope gave their annual entertainment in the Hall-street school-room on Tuesday, the 11th inst., Mr Hubert Wood occupying the chair. The programme included action songs and melodies by the children; recitations, Dorothy Emerson, Lella Hird, Lizzie Gibson, Gladys Morton and Edna Turnbull; solos, Misses Winnie Coates, Ida Eden and M. Swinbank; pianaforte solo, Rene Hird, and duet by the Misses McPhail and Beer. A sketch, entitled "Twoeat a time," by Misses M. and A. Arrowsmith, Alice Lowe and Norah Golightly, concluded the programme. Prizes were distributed to those scholars who had collected for the temperance hospital :- Lella Hird, Annie Morrell, Watson, Edna Turnbull, Regie Coates, Ernest Wilkinson, Harold Lowe and Roland Beer. A vote of thanks was proposed by Mrs F. B Wyatt, the president of the B.W.T.A.

At the Barnard Castle vestry meeting Mr W. Hodgson was again appointed Vicar's warden, and Mr J. Appleby people's warden, with Mr W. H. Ralston for Westwick and Mr Bewick for Stainton.

Boldron Primitive Methodist Church held special Eastertide services. On Good Friday night Mr P. McPhail, M.A., Cambridge, gave a lecture on "The literary associations of Barnard Castle," Mr William Coates presiding. Supper followed. Mr J. C. McPhail, of Manchester, conducted divine worship on Easter Sunday evening, special anthems being sung by the choir. A social, on Easter Monday, took the form of a musical programme before supper, and a variety of games after. About eighty people were present. These chapel anniversary services were in every way a success.

Mr Alderson, of Hope, who has been a member of the Startforth Rural District Council for twenty years, was not asked to be nominated at the late election, the consequence being that he has lost his seat. Other old members will be missing at the next meeting, and we may exclaim with Charles Lamb: "All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.'

In addition to the two first prizes won by Mr E. A. Metcalfe's wire fox terrier at North Shields, which we mentioned in our last issue, we omitted to state that he also won the special for best fox terrier, and silver cup and guinea special for best exhibit in the show all breeds, over 40 first prizewinners competing. Lartington Hunt Ball takes place to-morrow

The gas cookery demonstrations, now going on in the Witham Testimonial, are proving very popular, and attracting large gatherings of the local housewives, who are picking up many useful hints. The very talented lady lemonstrator remarked on the high quality of the gas at Barnard Castle, which consequently required less quantity in order to get the heat ecessary for cooking. The latest things in ookers, gas fires and lighting are being shown.

RAILWAY PRESENTATION.

WHIST DRIVE FOR ORPHANAGE. Advantage was taken of the annual whist drive and dance, promoted by the Barnard Castle Branch of the National Union of Railwaymen on behalf of the orphan benefit fund, held in the Witham Hall on Wednesday night, to make a presentation to Mr Thomas Egglestone, retired relief signalman. The gift, which took the form of an oak smoking cabinet, suitably inscribed, and a wallet of Treasury notes, had been freely subscribed to by his fellow workmen, by whom Mr Egglestone was held in great esteem. Mr T. Jenkinson, secretary of the local branch presided over the prelimary proceedings, and appropriately asked Mr E. Robson, traffic inspector, to make the presentation.—Mr Robson thanked the staff for requesting him to perform that pleasant duty. Mr Egglestone said, commenced his railway career on June 17th, 1877, in the permanent way department at Tebay, and was promoted to Belah signal box in September, 1878. By his attention to addition to TOYS and TOBACCOS, he will duty and sterling qualities as a signalman he was again promoted, and given a relief signalman's position and stationed at Barnard Castle in September, 1886, which post he held until, owing to having reached the age-limit, he retired on December 31st, 1921. Mr Egglestone was one of the most popular men in the district, and held in the highest regard by all grades of men with which he came in ontact. Mr Robson had great pleasure in handing over the presents, and wished the recipient health to use them. (Applause).—Mr Egglestone, who was well received, feelingly replied, and thanked all who had subscribed to the presents, which he appreciated very much -Messrs T. Egglestone (son), Bishop Auckland and E. Turner, Clifton, Penrith, also spoke, and Mr Robson was appropriately thanked Councillor G. Lorraine, Darlington, organising secretary for the district, gave a brief but interesting address on the work of the orphanage, and the whist drive then ommenced. Fifty-one tables were occupied for the games, which were under the able arge of Messrs J. Shield and J. T. Knowles The winners of the gentlemen's prizes were: Mr A. Hunter, Mr Goodwin, Miss Wilson, Mr A. Smith, Miss C. Egglestone, and Mr E. Raine; ladies-Mrs S. Reynolds, Mrs Duffy, Mrs Shield, Miss Hedley, Miss Barron, and Mrs Bauner. Mrs H. C. Watson, Spring Lodge, gracefully handed the prizes to the respective winners, and that lady was heartily thanked on the motion of Mr L. S. Brown, chairman of the ocal branch, seconded by Mr J. Wiseman.

> local secretary and organizing committee, and also the lady helpers.

Dancing was then indulged in with zest until about 4 a.m., to the strains of a first-class orchestra. The whole effort was undoubtedly a huge success, and reflects great credit on the CONTINUATION CLASSE 4. As the outcome of a most interesting address given a week or ten days ago by Mr Millward, on the Educational Continuation Classes, it has been arranged to form two classes for Barnard Castle for the session commencing October, 1922. The courses consist of weekly lectures by fully qualified men and followed by open discussions. English literature has been selected for a one-year class and should prove an attractive subject. Another class, for three years, is being arranged for the study of Industrial History and Economics, and a large number of names of intending members already received. The movement is supported by the County Education Committee and the Workers' Educational Association. Classes are open to all, and in other parts of the country have been attended by large numbers of men and women of various sections of society. Nominal fees only are charged. Those who wish to join are invited to give their names as early as possible to any of the following, who will be pleased to give fuller information :- Messrs W. Banks, Raby 'Avenue; J. P. Robson, Vane Road; J. T. Knowles, Market Place; and E. Watson,

HAIR OFTEN RUINED BY

CARELESS WASHING. Soap should be used very carefully if you vant to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps, prepared shampoos and shampoo powders contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just plain Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless, and is better than anything else you can use).

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup with a little tepid water will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which riuses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky. bright, lustrous, fluffy, and easy to manage. You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo from any chemist-it is inexpensive, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your chemist gives you Mulsified. Beware of imitations—look for the name Watkins on package.

GAS DEMONSTRATION.

LATEST DEVICES ON VIEW AT BARNARD CASTLE.

A gas demonstration, unique in a degree extending over a whole week, was opened in the Witham Hali has Thursday afternoon. The exhibition was organised by the Barnard Castle Gas Company, and the latest improved apparatus for cooking, heating and lighting by gas were on view. Many and various devices some as ingenius as they were useful, were to be seen, and which undoubtedly will mean a great saving of time and labour for the busy housewife. Improvements, too, were to be observed in gas cookers and gas fires, which could be used most economically. Practical cookery lectures and demonstrations were given each afternoon and evening by Mrs H. C. Gray, L.N.C.C., M.C.A., and the syllabus contained some exceedingly choice viands. Her recipes were eminently practical, and her cookery done by the gas ovens, was perfect. The exhibition was opened by Mr C. T. Singer, and Mr R. Wood, the local gas company secre tary, in a few preliminary observation, remarked that he was very glad to see such a large gathering of ladies. They were much indebted to Messrs Wright for such a variety of gas cookers and heaters on view, and were also fortunate in having so experienced and practical a cook and demonstrator as Mrs Gray. Mr Wood said he knew that people were hoping for a reduction in the price of gas and he assured them that the directors of the company were most anxious to lower the cost to the consumer as early as possible. They had made a beginning by allowing a little discount, but he hoped that very soon they would be in a position to bring down the price. -Mr Singer congratulated the gas company ou the exhibition, and hoped that good would result. He was glad to hear that the directors contemplated a reduction in the price of gas .-The doings and advice of the lecturer, who ollowed, were attended with keen interest.

GAINFORD NOTES

Mr E. D. Trotter, fishing on Monday, in Mr Edleston's waters at Gainford, landed another fine salmon weighing 22lbs., hooked at the same spot as the last in the upper Barford

The annual meeting of the Gainford and District Nursing Association was held on Friday evening, the president (Lord Gainford) in the chair. Nurse Allison is working the district for the present until the appointment of Nurse Phillipson takes effect early in May.

The annual vestry meeting was held on Easter Tuesday at 7 p.m., in the school-room. The Rev. H. C. Watson presided, those present including the Rev. H. R. McDermid, Mrs George Harrison, Mr C. H. Dent, Mr R. H. Edleston Mr G. E. Taylor, Mr T. Peacock, Mr J. P. Charge, Mr P. W. Cathrick, Mr T. H. Hall and Mr F. Cathrick.

On Good Friday afternoon, a number of the "King's Messengers"—boys and girls branches (founded by Mrs Edleston)—met in their usual room at 3 o'clock. Mr Edleston gave a short address, and the Rev. H. J. Likeman followed with an earnest discourse based upon two of the sayings from the Cross.

Gospel, and King's Messengers. Canon Lonslale delivered an earnest address on missions. There was a small sale of work, over which Mrs Pape presided. A meeting of the parish council was held on Thursday in the school-room. The Charities and Parish Property Committee was requested to go into the question of the restoration and utilization of the Pinfold within a month, and the Clerk was instructed to call a special meet. ing for this purpose, and for the discussion of the burial ground question.

THE GONDOLIERS.

Last night the Barnard Castle Amateur Operatic Society gave their first performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's opera, "The Gondoliers," at the Victoria Hall, Barnard Castle, As forecasted in our issue of last week it was excellently rendered. We had not the opportunity of hearing the whole performance efore going to press, but we were kindly afforded the privilege of hearing the final dress rehearsal on Monday night, and our report is derived partly from the performance itself and partly from the rehearsal. The stage effects, both as to scenery, dresses, etc., were superb. As regards the principal characters, it would be invidious to attempt to make comparisons. They are happily chosen, and we can say confidently that they are all exceedingly good. The bright opening chorus gives an indication of the great care which has been taken in the training, which has been in the able hands of Mr A. Ridley. It and the others are rendered very sharply and promptly and reflect great credit on our townsman, Mr Wightman, the able conductor. The action of the chorus shows close adherence to the wellknown almost "drill" methods of the D'Oyly Carte Companies. The orchestra can be congratulated on their tuneful and prompt rendering under the leadership of Mrs J. The society is to be heartily rejoiced with on the splendid representation of the opera, and we trust the following three performances will receive the public support, so well deserved. We append the cast:—The Duke of Plaza-Toro, a Grandee of Spain, Mr C. E. Edmondson; Luiz, his attendant, Mr J. T. Winter; Don Alhambra Del Bolero, the Grand Inquisitor, Mr T. Bainbridge; Venetian Gondoliers:—Marco Palmieri, Mr J. Nattress; Giuseppe Palmieri, Mr J. Brown; Antonio Mr E. Bayles; Francesco, Mr J. Shield Giorgio, Mr J. Huntridge; Annibale, Mr T Boardman; The Duchess of Plaza-Toro, Miss Marie Nicholson; Casilda, her daughter, Miss M. Steele; Contadine: -Gianetta, Miss M. Forshaw; Tessa, Miss G. Hall; Fiametta, Mrs T. Boardman; Vittoria, Miss L. Higgin botham; Giulia, Miss B. Ainsley; Inez, the King's Foster-Mother, Mrs T. Bainbridge.

The means of carriage formerly existing here were the carrier's waggons, a coach twice a week to Darlington, and jagger galloways for the higher parts of Teesdale. Economical people travelled principally on foot; and there was one Barnard Castle tradesman, ninety years ago, who, on his journeys to Leeds, to buy goods, regularly walked to and from that

UPPER DALE NOTES.

BY OUR CORRESPONDENT.

The first meeting of the newly-elected Parish Council for Middleton was held at the Town Hall on Wednesday night last. The following officials were elected for the year :-Chairman-Mr T. R. Gowling; vice-chairman-Mr G. G. Morton; treasurer—Mr J. Watson; overseers—Messrs T. R. Gowling, M. Richardson and W. Allinson; trustees for Free School Charity—Messrs T. R. Gowling and J. Morton: School Managers-Messrs J. Watson and J. H. Shaw; Parish Property Committee-Messrs J. H. Shaw and R. J. Smith; Footpath Committee —Messrs W. Allinson, R. J. Smith and J. H. Shaw; Lighting Committee-Messrs G. G. Morton, W. Allinson and J. Tallentire. A discussion took place in regard to the wall on the Station Road that was knocked down by a motor waggon, and a sub-committee was appointed to deal with the matter.

Middleton Spring Fair was only poorly attended on Thursday last. Owing to the restrictions on account of the Foot-and-Mouth Disease no cattle were shown. "Tuer's Spring," the property of Mr Tuer, Penrith, was successful in winning the £60 premium given by the Board of Agriculture for the best fell pony entire, and will be required to travel the Teesdale district for the Fell Committee; "Gay Laddie," the property of Mrs E. Forster, Crook, came second, and British Credit " was third, which also belongs o Mrs Forster. Messrs H. Brown, Tirrel, Penrith, and J. Holmes, Hackforth, were the judges. Several other horses that will travel the district were paraded, which included "Brown Jock," the property of Mr Gilbert Beadle, Blackton Farm, Egglestone, which is rising 6 years old, is a rich brown, with black legs, and plenty of bone, quality and good action, and is a very suitable horse for dales pony breeders. "Linnel Heather," for dales pony breeders. "Linner Heather, owned by Mr J. W. Dent, Middleton-in-Teesdale, is a typical fell pony, by "Black Blooming Heather," from the noted mare "Stonedress Polly." The three-year-old shown by Mr O. Dent, Lunedale, is a promising young horse, and should be found very useful for the district. Mr T. V. Emerson, Stankope, showed a beautiful black pony, "Stanhope Hero," which will no doubt be in great demand during the season.

Mr F. J. Smith, auctioneer, conducted a horse sale on Thursday afternoon, at Middleton, after the fair. There were a good number of horses forward, and many changed hands at only moderate prices. Yearlings made up to £14 10s. Two-year-olds up to £18, and a three-year-old made £20. General purposes class made up to £39 10s. It is intended to make this a half-yearly event, with prizes for several classes, which should prove to be a great advantage to farmers and breeders in the

Mr Edwards, Poultry Instructor from the County Council Education Department, gave an out-door lecture at Mr T. Redfearn's poultry farm, Middleton, on Wednesday night last, on chicken breeding and rearing. The lecture was highly appreciated by a large audience.

Dr. Buchanan, Darlington, conducted an examination at Middleton station general waiting room on Sunday morning last, in connection with the Middleton Ambulance On Tuesday afternoon a drawing-room meeting was held by invitation in connection with the Society for the Propagation of the and Mr W. Fletcher, Darlington district secretary, were present. Fourteen students secretary, were present. Fourteen students sat for examination-twelve for certificates, one for voucher, and one for medallion. At the conclusion Mr Witchell moved a hearty vote of thanks to Dr. Buchanan, which was seconded by Mr W. Hutchinson for coming to examine the class. In returning thanks the doctor said it had been a real pleasure to him, and asked the members to stick in and so become thoroughly efficient in rendering first aid to the injured.

EXCELSIOR CYCLING CLUB.

The opening run of the Barnard Castle Exelsior Cycling Club, which had to be postponed on Friday, took place on Easter Monday, when the members had a run to Stainton where sports, football match, and smoker were neld, for which valuable prizes were given, the results being as follows:—Three-legged race, 1st, Tees Wright and J. Hunter; slow bicycle race, Tees Wright; wheelbarrow race. J. Porter and J. Addison; eighty yards' handicap, Bert. Richardson and Geo. Barker dead heat). An excellent tea was afterwards provided by Mrs C. Woodhams at the Black Bull Hotel, and vice-captain G. Barker presided at the smoker which followed. Songs vere rendered by Messrs F. Guyll, W. Hewitt, J. Pearson, J. Porter, J. Robson, G. Barker, W. Baker J. Hunter, C. Woodhams, R. Hewitt, R. Bell, and J. Parkinson. The hon. secretary, W. Robinson, accompanied the songs.
