The Teesdale Mercury - Wednesday, February 6, 1924.

Agriculture in Durham Field trials with varieties of potatoes Amongst those who sent wreaths were:—

Amongst those who sent wreaths were:—

Mr. R. Davison, Coundon (cousin); Mr. John J. R. Mitchell, Thubron, Barnard Castle; and

Mr. C. Jones, Spennymoor; Mr. and Mrs. John Longstaff, Barnard Castle; Mr. and Mrs. John

Mr. W. Clarkson, Startforth (cousin); Mr. J. R. Mitchell, Staindrop, Mr. R. Coggs, Schoolmaster, Newbiggin. The competition was won by Mrs. Denny. The guessing competition was won by Mrs. Denny. The guessing

26 nominations for 18 seats were elected: Mr. James Taylor, Mr. O. A. Thompson, Mr. S. G. Lonsdale, Mr. J. J. Stobbart, Mr. J. Bailey, Mr. R. Piers, Mr. Collins, Mrs. J. J. Stobbart, Mr. R. Piers.

The Middleton United Football Club held a whist drive in the Church schoolroom on WEDNESDAY, February 6, 1924. The society's membership was most satisfactory, there being a good balance in the variety test. Four varieties were used in

BEETLE & LICE IN CATTLE

A report of the Selby Seed Ball would not have been complete without mention of the high standard of the various wheat and barley crops which the Club's members had grown, and the, a report of the Selby Seed Ball would not have been complete without mention of the high standard of the various wheat and barley crops which the Club's members had grown, and the

A report of the Selby Seed Ball would not have been complete without mention of the high standard of the various wheat and barley crops which the Club's members had grown, and the

THE BARNARD CASTLE SANITARY STEAM LAUNDRY.

Proprietor - A. Steele.

Mrs. John Longstaff, Barnard Castle; Mr. W. Clarkson, Startforth (cousin); Mr. J. R. Mitchell, Staindrop, Mr. R. Coggs, Schoolmaster, Newbiggin. The competition was won by Mrs. Denny. The guessing competition was won by Mrs. Denny. The guessing

26 nominations for 18 seats were elected: Mr. James Taylor, Mr. O. A. Thompson, Mr. S. G. Lonsdale, Mr. J. J. Stobbart, Mr. J. Bailey, Mr. R. Piers, Mr. Collins, Mrs. J. J. Stobbart, Mr. R. Piers.

The Middleton United Football Club held a whist drive in the Church schoolroom on WEDNESDAY, February 6, 1924. The society's membership was most satisfactory, there being a good balance in the variety test. Four varieties were used in

BEETLE & LICE IN CATTLE

A report of the Selby Seed Ball would not have been complete without mention of the high standard of the various wheat and barley crops which the Club's members had grown, and the, a report of the Selby Seed Ball would not have been complete without mention of the high standard of the various wheat and barley crops which the Club's members had grown, and the

A report of the Selby Seed Ball would not have been complete without mention of the high standard of the various wheat and barley crops which the Club's members had grown, and the