Odd lots of Wool.
 A profitable use for odd lots of wool—too small to market in the ordinary way—is to have them made up by the Otterburn Mill into serviceable woollen goods.
 For 104 years Otterburn have been making up Grover's own wool into "woollens" for Household and Personal use.
 The charges are extremely moderate, being only a small percentage over actual working costs, and the carefully made goods wear, and wear, as only pure wool can wear.
 Our "Grover's Own Wool" Booklet will tell you of the many things we make, such as: Tweeds, Blankets, Scarves, Rugs and Knitting Yarn. It also gives scale of charges and quantities of wool needed. Ask for Post Free Booklet.

BOWES FARMER'S DEATH.
TRAGIC END OF MR. C. HUTCHINSON.
 We record with much regret the death of Mr. Christopher Hutchinson, Sleightholme, Bowes, which occurred on Wednesday evening at Darlington Hospital. Mr. Hutchinson, it will be remembered, was seriously injured in an accident which occurred on the road to Kirkby Stephen on Thursday, October 14th. He was removed to Darlington Hospital for treatment and died there, six days later. He was 63 years of age and had farmed at Sleightholme for many years, being held in high esteem in the wide agricultural district of which Bowes is the centre. He was noted as a breeder of Swaledale sheep and was a prize-winner at several local agricultural shows.
 Inquest Opened and Adjourned.
 Mr. T. Froude, Coroner, opened an inquiry into the cause of the death of Mr. Hutchinson at the Darlington Hospital on Friday morning. The relatives of the deceased were represented by Mr. A. H. Nicholson, from the office of Messrs W. J. and H. C. Watson, Barnard Castle, the family solicitors. Only evidence of identification was taken.
 Miss Edard Hutchinson, of Sleightholme, Bowes, identified the body as that of her uncle, Christopher Hutchinson, for whom she kept home. She was not present at the accident on 14th October, she said, and he was not brought home. He went to sell some sheep at the Kirkby Stephen Auction Mart, and travelled by motor lorry, with him being his nephew, John Robert Eddy, and Messrs Matthew Hastings and Joseph Kidd, farmers. Percy Hutchinson drove the lorry. At 10.50 the same night she heard that there had been an accident. She went straight through to Darlington, arriving at 12.50, and saw her uncle at the hospital. He was conscious, but did not tell her what had happened. His only comment on the subject was "They were coming too fast." He was very ill, and she stayed in the ward all night, and remained at Darlington until Tuesday. Her uncle died at 6.45 on Wednesday night, but she was not present at the time.
 At this point the Coroner adjourned the inquiry until Wednesday, November 2nd.

The remains of Mr. Christopher Hutchinson were interred at Bowes Churchyard on Saturday afternoon, a large gathering of neighbouring agriculturists and others testifying to the universal esteem in which he was held. The funeral service was held in the church and gave an address full of comfort for the survivors. The mourners were Miss E. Hutchinson (sister), Mr. J. R. Eddy (nephew), Mr. Matthew Hastings (Dove Hall), Mr. T. M. Fitzherbert (Meltham), Mrs. M. E. Horner, Colonel H. C. Watson and Mr. A. H. Nicholson (of Messrs W. J. and H. C. Colonel Headlam at Staindrop.
 A meeting was held in the South Hall, Staindrop, on Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Barnard Castle Unions Association, Staindrop Branch, Colonel Trotter presiding. Colonel Headlam, M.P., in a very interesting address, strongly denounced the present disastrous leadership of the miners. Several questions were asked by miners from Cockfield to which the Member replied. Votes of thanks to the speaker and Chairman were proposed and seconded by Messrs. J. A. Freston and J. Thompson and Messrs. Hall and Davison respectively. The hall was filled.

 Upon their backs to bite 'em;
 And little flies have lesser flies,
 And so—so—so infamously.
