Brereton was the preacher.

Births, Marriages and Deaths.

IN MEMORIAM. HOGGETT.—In loving memory of my dear sister, Mary Ann Hoggett who died June 27th, 1928. Your end came sudden, sister dear, It made me weep and cry; But oh, the saddest part of all, You could not say good-bye. —Ever remembered by Lizzie and Joe, also nephews and nieces. HOGGETT.—In loving memory of our dear aunt, Mary Ann Hoggett, who died June 27th, 1928. She bade no one a last farewell, She waved her hand to none; She took her flight before we knew That from us she was gone. —Ever remembered by her loving nieces Lily and Nora.

RAINE.—In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Elizabeth Anne, who died June 27th, 1926. Lonely the house, and sad the hours, Since our darling Mother died; But oh, a brighter Home than ours, In Heaven is now her prize. —Lovingly remembered by her loving son Joe, and daughters Mary, Nora, and Mabel, grandchildren, and sons-in-law.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. HEDLEY.—Sincere thanks to all are tendered by the relatives of the late Miss E. E. Hedley, and by Miss L. Burns for the many tributes and expressions of sympathy received. HEDLEY.—The family of the late Mr G. Hedley desire to return their grateful thanks for the many kind messages of sympathy sent to them during their recent bereavement, also for floral tributes.
