MR MARK MILBANK MARRIED

FASHIONABLE GATHERING AT THE GUARDS' CHAPEL.

The Guards' Chapel at Wellington Barracks, London, on Monday had a large congregation to witness the marriage of Mr Mark Milbank, eldest son of Sir Frederick and Lady Milbank, Barningham Park, to Miss Angela Lamarch Nevill, only daughter of Major and Mrs Guy Larnach-Nevill, of Brambletye, East Grinstead, Sussex. The bride's father is heir-presumptive of the Marquess of Abergavenny. Mr Mark Milbank is an officer in the 3rd Battalion Coldstream Guards. The Bishop of Blackburn officiated at the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. C. Egerton Chadwick, and the Rev. J. M. Dudgeon, and the band of the Coldstream Guards played in the Chapel during the service.

The bridegroom's brother, Mr Jack Milbank, was his best man. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of pearl-tinted satin, cut on extremely simple lines. The close-fitting bodice was slightly pouched at each side, with a round neckline and bands of satin across the back and front, and long fitting sleeves. While the long skirt fitted tightly at the hips and flared towards the hem, forming a short rounded train at the back. Beautiful old Brussels lace, lent by Lady Milbank, formed the train, which was draped from the shoulders and decorated in the centre with a cluster of orange flowers, while the long ivory tulle veil, which fell to the ground, was worn over the bride's face and depended from a coronet headdress of orange blossom.

The train was carried by two little boys, Master Rupert Nevill (brother of the bride) and Master James Ramsden (cousin of the bridegroom). There were eight bridesmaids, Miss Ruby and Miss Joan Nevill (cousins of the bride), Miss Margaret Hutham (cousin of the bridegroom), Lady Fiona Pratt, Miss Diana Henderson, Lady Rose McDonnell, Miss Lettice Ward, and Miss Marguerite Blount. Their dresses were of gold lamé, and cut with long full skirts with a narrow frill across the hips, and long-sleeved bodices.

As the bride and bridegroom left the Guards' Chapel, a guard of honour was formed by warrant and non-commissioned officers of the Coldstream Guards.

The honeymoon will be spent in the South of France.

Mrs Guy Larnach-Nevill held a reception at 41, Upper Grosvenor Street, after the ceremony.
