Loyalties Divided for Annual Match

All were present, and the weather correct, for the Barnard Castle branch Durham Light Infantry Association annual outing which was held on Sunday. Once again Redear, the choice for many previous outings, was selected by the organisers as the venue, and it was here, on the seashore, that the loyalties of the happy company were divided during the popular soccer match held annually between men" and the "youngsters" of the second-" Monty's."

The team captained by Mr J. Simpson, chairman of the branch, won by eight goals to five. The defeated general being Mr T Russ, branch secretary and one of the outing
