BOWLS

J. H. Alderson beats all the open visitors

At North Park on Wednesday Barnard Castle lost 1-4. M. C. Branthwaite's rink scored ten shots without reply in the first five ends and finished with nine shots up to gain Barnard Castle's only point. The rink with W. H. Philipson as skip was 3-22 down at the 13th end and then rallied only to lose by six shots. The two other rinks lost by 12 shots.

Rink 2: J. Mattison (s) 26; S. Livesey, R. W. Pratt, J. L. Metcalfe (s) 14. 3: W. Morland (s) 27; A. W. Atkinson, L. Wakefield, J. Peters (s) 15. 4: D. Miller (s) 25; R. Robson, R. L. Wood, W. H. Philipson (s) 19. 5: K. Tait (s) 15; N. C. Farrer, J. J. Bainbridge, M. C. Branthwaite (s) 24.

Result: North Park 4 (93), Barnard Castle 1 (72). In the corresponding home match Barnard Castle won 4-1 and the aggregate score was similar (92-71).

Bowlers from a wide area and various clubs (Barnard Castle being the 13th) took part in the open tournament on Saturday. Although the weather was good there were only 70 players. The winner was a Barnard Castle player, J. H. Alderson, who beat N. Carling (Darlington Central) in a close final and J. Algar (Newton Aycliffe) in a semi-final.

Another local player, J. L. Metcalfe, was the other semi-finalist. Quarter-finalists were W. McAdam (Bishop Auckland), R. Brookes (Central), Mrs M. Cowans (Leyburn) and J. Race (Shildon).

C. L. Lewis, president, presented the prizes and thanked everyone who had helped in any way in the running of the event. It was pleasing to see so many spectators enjoying the evening sunshine and watching the closing stages of the competition.

Tomorrow there will be a league match, at home to Darlington Central, and on Saturday the annual triples tournament. A match of particular interest, that of ladies versus gentlemen, has been arranged for Monday evening.

CRICKET

Young lions hit superb 108 in 59 minutes

After an unusually sticky start Barnard Castle prospered in the middle order against Blackhall thanks to a superb stand of 108 between Micky Stanwix (47) and John Ashman (62).

This partnership was put together in just 59 minutes and included some of the best batting produced by the club's "young lions" for many years.

Both batsmen played shots to all corners of the ground. Older heads chipped in with useful contributions and a score of 199 was going to be hard to better.

Blackhall collapsed to the fine opening attack provided by Tony Borrowdale (3-36) and Dave Stanwix (5-22).

S. Thompson 82

After two successive defeats, Ingletown achieved their most exciting league victory this season in a high scoring game. Batting first, Ingletown reached 36-3 before an excellent fourth wicket partnership of 154 between Stan Thompson who scored 82 and Mike Batey with 77, helped them to reach 225 from their 45 overs.

Haughton made a steady start but Maurice Burney bowled well to concede 41 runs from 13 overs. Haughton's reply fell nine runs short with Ken Gamack claiming four late wickets.

Ingletown: R. Heslop c Potts b Laundry, 21; C. Birch c Sturman b Potts, 6; S. Thompson s Barker b Laundry, 2; S. Gamack c Dobinson b Laundry, 2; M. Batey c Innis b Sturman, 77; K. Ashman 28 n.o.

Middleton-St.-George batted first against Barnard Castle Juniors and made 73-8. They never recovered from losing Jemmeson with the second ball. Barnard Castle bowled and fielded well, in particular J. Ashman and J. Lambert.

Barnard Castle got away to a sound start due to A. Carter who hit three fours in his innings of 16. But then they suffered a minor collapse. J. Ashman put them back on course with a good innings of 28 not out.

Barnard Castle: A. Carter b Jemmeson, 16; T. Underwood c

Jemmeson b Jordison, 8; M. Hunt b Jemmeson, 8; D. McGarr c Whitaker b Watson, 2; J. Ashman not out, 28; K. Atkin c Newton b Watson, 3; J. Watson not out, 4; extras, 8; total (5 wickets), 77.

Lewandowski 42

Barnard Castle II were outclassed at home by Seaton Carew on Sunday and slumped to their heaviest defeat of the season.

The town batted first on a good wicket, but struggled to cope with some pacy swing bowling. Early wickets tumbled and at 54 for five a rescue act was badly needed.

It came when Steve Lewandowski and Trevor Collinson came together and worked hard for a 50 partnership. Steve batted particularly well and without his contribution the scorebook would have made miserable reading. John Gledhill cracked three powerful fours and the town scrambled to 140 all out.

Seaton Carew cruised to victory with embarrassing ease. The town struck an early blow with a wicket from Gledhill, but that was their one moment of joy as the Seaton number three cracked the ball all over the field for an unbeaten 91. His partner contributed a quiet 41, to complete a nine wicket victory.

Every shot was loudly applauded by the visitors' large number of followers. Watching Barnard Castle II isn't everybody's idea of a pleasant afternoon but—as one town player remarked—when you live in Seaton Carew any day out is worth having. After this result their players wouldn't mind visiting the town every weekend.

Barnard Castle 140. Byers 15, Bentley 5, Walker 6, Lewandowski 42, Coates 2, Stanwix 4, Collinson 17, Gledhill 19, Johnson 2, Hesp 3, Wilkinson n.o. 1.

D. McGarr 4-14

Rockcliffe got away to a good start against Barnard Castle Juniors, losing only one wicket in 10 overs. But then Dean McGarr ripped through with a 4-14 spell in five overs. There were dropped catches and fielding errors which allowed Rockcliffe to get 90-5 wickets in 20 overs.

Barnard Castle got away to a slow start, and were always behind the rate, and lost wickets at regular intervals. Rockcliffe's total proved too much despite a fine innings of 21 by Mathew Hunt.

Barnard Castle: A. Carter c Hart b Marshall, 10; M. Hunt b Fiddell, 21; T. Underwood b Marshall, 2; D. McGarr c Cooke b Klennell, 3; J. Watson b Klennell, 8; K. Atkin run out, 8; S. Sowerby c Marshall b Hart, 9; F. Hesselting not out, 8; M. Addison not out, 7; extras, 8; total (7 wickets), 84.

Barnard Castle bowling: S. Sowerby 5-1-17-1, A. Carter 5-0-2-0, D. McGarr 5-1-14-4, J. Lambert 5-1-29-0.

Ashman 83 n.o.

Barnard Castle Juniors got away to a good start against Middleton-St.-George, putting on 31 without loss in six overs. J. Ashman was the backbone, making 83 n.o. This innings included 11 fours and three sixes. Mathew Hunt batted well for his 23.

Middleton-St.-George made 77 for three wickets in reply. This was due to some tight bowling and some fine fielding.

Barnard Castle: J. Ashman not out, 83; A. Carter b Jemmeson, 2; M. Hunt run out, 23; D. McGarr b Whitaker, 12; M. Hedley b Whitaker, 7; J. Watson not out, 0; extras, 16, total (4 wickets) 143.

A. Todd 54

Eggleston batted first away to Lands and lost three wickets very quickly. However, a good innings by A. Lowe (31) and a resolute 25 from J. Beadle, followed by a fine half-century by A. Todd saw them reach 148 all out.

Lands also lost three quick wickets, but a good stand between M. Oldfield and J. Tallentire left them in a good position and they won with three balls to spare, despite J. Allinson (3-38) bowling well.

Eggleston: J. Dykes c Tookeby b Little, 6; J. Allinson c Tookeby b Little, 1; C. Trotter c Tookeby b Longstaff, 5; J. Beadle b Longstaff, 25; A. Lowe c Oldfield b Elliott, 31; A. Mardon 87 but victory missed

Barnard Castle were pleased to be put in to bat on a good-looking Hartlepool track which looked to be full of runs. So it proved as the town reached 200-6 wickets with Hartlepool hanging on for a draw at 158-8.

It really is difficult to understand why Barnard Castle have yet to win a league match this season when everyone in the side is playing so well.

The major contributors to the town's innings were "hopalong" Mardon with an almost faultless 87, and Mike Stanwix (44) whose powerful striking of the ball drew complimentary and rueful comment from members of the opposition who happened to get in the way of the ball.

Ashworth (24) and Ashman (16) both looked in good form and McMillan artfully finished the job

PIGEONS

Hartlepool's innings held together around a chancy but valuable 70 from veteran Jim Kennedy. Nobody else looked threatening but while Kennedy was there, Hartlepool looked likely to win.

Howard Charlesworth's extra pace and bounce put the fear of God into the home side but the chances didn't quite force a victory. Earlier, Tony Borrowdale, Dave Stanwix and John Gatenby (3-37) had worked their way through the best of the Hartlepool batting and only the experience of Kenny Gardner saved Hartlepool from defeat.

Walking beside a danger zone

Barnard Castle Ramblers travelled by car to Holwick. They walked along the pony track towards Thistle Green, where there is a lot of sugar limestone to be seen. Walking alongside the army danger zone they crossed Black Hill to Maize Beck, where they had their lunch stop before starting the return journey alongside the Tees. From Cronkley Farm the Pennine Way was followed back to Holwick past High Force.

There is no walk this weekend. The next one is on Sunday, 21st August, in the Cleveland Hills.

Megan's show

Members of Teesdale Visually Handicapped Club were pleased to have a return visit from Miss Megan Jones, who gave great pleasure with a variety of songs and monologues. There was an almost full attendance and the entertainment provided by Miss Jones was appreciated. The next meeting this Friday takes the form of an outing for tea to Wolsingham.
