

TROPHIES, CAROLS AND SOME NATTY COSTUMES

Tony Seaman presents the Mercury Trophy to Amanda Robinson at the Chocolate Fayre. On either side of Amanda are her parents, Ken and Hazel Robinson, and Alan Wilkinson is on the right.

Clowns Carolyn Cluer and Sue Vass generated a lot of fun.

Young musicians from Woodland School did well to provide music for carol singers outside the Witham Hall in blustery weather.

Ann Bell at Robert Mottershead's showroom.

Lindsay Thompson of Bolam, a YTS trainee on duty at Youngs the jewellers.

There were fine costumes to match the sweet voices of carol singers.

Some of the many pupils who enjoyed carol singing in the open air.

Tony Chisholm, Martyn Tetchener and Joy Ash of the King's Head Hotel receive the Mercury Trophy from Alan Wilkinson for having the best costumes in licensed premises.

Happy carol singers from Forest School are Nicola Wearmouth, Andrew Dodd, Andrew Toward and Rachael Bainbridge.

Jed Peachey-Pace was the smiling elf who helped Santa look after visitors on the community bus, when Steve Pace was in charge.
